23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” - Lk 14:33

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God’s presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, the parish welcomes a missionary priest assigned by the Archdiocese. I know you will make him feel welcome! I am taking the opportunity to spend some time with my good friend, Fr. Jim Koressel, who was here a month ago and is what is known as a "retired priest!"

"Who can know God's counsel, or who can conceive what the Lord intends?" These opening words of today's first reading describe what should be our approach to the Sacred Mysteries each Sunday.

We listen to words that both challenge and comfort us. This week's Gospel challenges us to keep our priorities in right order by steadfastly following Jesus Christ. We do this by taking up our crosses each day and using our God-given resources for the good of the Church, our parish and society.

It sounds much easier than it is my friends. We talk a good talk but sometimes we have to admit, we don't "walk the walk." Rather than to get discouraged however, we need to remember that our Eucharistic Lord is here in the Blessed Sacrament to help us, guide us and strengthen us! This is exactly how we "walk the walk" of Jesus Christ! Why stay away from His Presence? Why not come to Him for solace and hope? Why try to "go it alone" when we can experience His being right with us; in good times as well as challenging?

I praise the good God when I think of how times have changed over the past thirty-plus years. When I began seminary studies back in 1980, devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament was all but discouraged. As a matter of fact, it WAS discouraged in no small manner! It chills me to the bone when I remember a priest saying to me, concerning Benediction: "No! We're not going backwards!" It was as though devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist was somehow "backward"! It has slowly dawned on such folks that in order to "carry your cross," as we hear in the Gospel, one needs to be strengthened and devoted to Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

Our Lord Jesus Christ remains, twenty-four seven, in our tabernacle; inviting, waiting and loving us to come to Him. He is here before each Mass, during each Mass and after each Mass; His Eucharistic Heart calling to us! Let us come to Him!

Remember Saturday, the 28th, is OKTOBERFEST! REMEMBER, TOO, THAT THE MASS ON THAT SATURDAY WILL BE AT 4:00 P.M., AT THE FAIR GROUNDS, RATHER THAN THE USUAL 5:00 P.M! If you have not done so, get your tickets this weekend, as all must be pre-bought in order to prepare the correct amount of food!

God Bless You All!

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
 we humbly pray; and do Thou,
 O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
 by the power of God,
 cast into hell, satan and
 all the evil spirits,
 who prowl about the world
 seeking the ruin of souls.
 Amen

THANK YOU!

I had quadruple bypass surgery on Aug 2, came home on Aug 7, came to Mass on Aug 17, and feel far better than the doctor and Helen think I should. I am following Dr. orders (Helen is enforcing them), but I think I can do more. I can only attribute my recovery to the prayers offered in my behalf. Thank you very much.
