"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Some people like to flaunt their fortune. Others become self-absorbed. Today's readings invite us to respond to God's gifts in a simple way. We are called to offer thanks. Each time we gather for the offering of Holy Mass; for the offering of the Eucharist, a word that means "thanksgiving," we have the opportunity of a life time to say "thank-you" to the Father.

Like Naaman and the grateful leper, we come before the Lord to give thanks for our families and friends, for our Catholic Faith, for the many blessings we have each received and most of all, for the Gift of Jesus Himself in the Most Holy Eucharist!

I think quite often, we can learn much from the grateful leper. This one grateful leper returned and perceived that with Jesus, something more and something better is offered than simply returning to our old way of life.

We all know, at times it's hard to be anything but thankful when we dwell on the problems, sufferings and real pain that confront us in life. This life is not heaven, no matter how much we wish it were. As the hymn says: "We walk by faith." And because of faith, we are called to thanksgiving; to gratitude.

The Mass this weekend affords us the time to reflect upon blessings and thanksgiving. Are we a people who walk through life with grateful hearts? In what ways in the coming week can we offer thanks to God our Father for all we have been given? How can we share this with others?

It is somewhat hard to believe but it's that time of year again when we make available to the parish, the envelopes for ALL SOULS' DAY. The envelopes will be in the narthex for the next three weekends for you to include the names of your beloved dead which will be written into our BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE, which will remain in the sanctuary during the holy month of November when we traditionally make a special effort to remember and pray for the dead. It is asked that all envelopes be returned no later than Sunday, October 27, to be inscribed into the book.

A note to parents concerning Fall Break: PLEASE remember that, while our students and your children are on break, the OBLIGATION TO ATTEND SUNDAY MASS IS STILL PRESENT! In other words, if traveling, please insure your family attends Holy Mass wherever you may be. It is an obligation...not an option! Who came up with this? Let's see, oh yes, that would be GOD in the Third Commandment. For Catholics, that means Holy Mass.

God's blessings to you all!

Father Michael Suteda

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
