"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The arms of Moses grow weary in today's first reading. As long as he kept his arms raised high, the Israelites had the better of the fight, but when his arms were lowered, the Israelites would fall low in battle.

Aaron and Hur assist Moses by keeping his arms held high when he grows weary. Their persistence pays off as the Israelites win the decisive battle. Persistence is also the main point in today's Gospel.

As Catholics we are blessed to express our faith in the company of a nurturing community both locally as well as universally. Sometimes we grow weary, don't we? Sometimes our prayer needs the support and compassion of those who will lift us up. At these times it is important for us to hold one another up so that our persistent prayers are constantly offered to our Lord! As we go forth from Mass today, let us pray in a spirit of thanksgiving for the gift of one another in the unity of faith and belief grounded in the Holy Eucharist!

Next weekend is the final time for you to submit the ALL SOULS' DAY envelopes! Please feel free to place the names of your beloved dead on the envelope in order that the names may be inscribed into our BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE for this year's month of All Souls, November. Please take note of Mass times for ALL SAINTS' DAY...ALL HALLOWS'S EVE, OCTOBER 31, MASS IS AT 7:00 PM. However, All Saints' Mass will be offered on NOVEMBER 1st AT NOON. Mass for ALL SOULS' will be offered on Saturday, November 2, at the usual 5:00 p.m. All Masses will be offered "AD ORIEN-TEM/DEUM"...priest and people facing together toward the Lord. Masses on Sunday, November 3, are for the Thirty-First Sunday of Ordinal Time... and YES, Mass Saturday night fulfills the Sunday Obligation.

Growing up, I always looked forward to the month of November. True, going to a Catholic School, we always had November 1st as a free day so we didn't have to go to school the day after Halloween! And, yes, I never went to school on my birthday because of Veterans' Day! But, the month was and still remains very special to me for another important reason. I always felt close to my family and loved ones who had died. As a Catholic, I always appreciated and loved the prayers offered for deceased aunts, uncles, cousins, grandfathers, etc. As I lost my two grandmas and now, of course, Mom this August, and Dad, November continues to hold a powerful hold. There's something about the COMMUNION OF THE SAINTS that I find very comforting. As the circle of family grows closer here on earth, it grows ever wider in heaven.

As we remember and pray for those gone in death, they pray for us! I find that very comforting. I feel sorry for those outside the Church who have jettisoned the belief in the saints and their intercession in our lives. Whether we are cleansed and purged of our sins in this life, or in purgatory, we all need the prayers of others! Plan on coming to Mass on All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day!

All Holy Men and Women, Pray for Us!

Father Michael Litzel

The Rosary will be said prior to all the Masses during the month of October.
