Charitable Giving Meeting

On Wednesday, October 30, at 7:00 p.m. two parishioners, Greg Purvis and Jim Johnson, will present important aspects of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act which went into effect in 2018 as it relates to the impact of charitable giving to charitable organizations including Mary Queen of Peace.

Greg is an attorney with decades of experience in helping financial advisors develop and implement charitable giving strategies. Jim is a long time financial advisor who counsels clients on ways to meet their charitable desires efficiently and effectively.

The session promises to be both timely and informative.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

When one considers the vastness of the universe, made by God, it is sometimes sort of difficult even to conceive that our Father hears our individual prayers, is it not? Yet, this is exactly what the readings at Mass this weekend tell us: "The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest until it reaches its goal."

So, who is the "lowly" person? It is the humble person. It is the person who recognizes and admits to the good God that He is in control. It is the person who freely submits to Christ Jesus and His teachings and Gospel. It is the person who knows in his or her heart that we have the assurance of faithful teaching and life in the person of Pope Francis and the Magisterium of the Church.

Last week we were reminded to be persistent in prayer and to support one another in the practice of prayer. This week calls for honesty in prayer. It may be as simple as making the words of the tax collector in today's Gospel our own: "O God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

Be sure to return your ALL SOULS' ENVELOPES THIS weekend, if you have not done so! The names will be inscribed in our BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE and remain in the sanctuary in special prayer throughout the month of November.

You will note in this weekend's bulletin, the Mass schedule for the upcoming HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION of ALL SAINTS! Mass will be offered at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, All Hallows' Eve, and again on Friday, November 1, at NOON. Mass for the Feast of ALL SOULS will be the usual 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday, November 2. This Mass will fulfill the Sunday obligation. Masses, November 3, will be at the usual time.

You should be receiving the annual mailing from yours truly regarding the United Catholic Appeal, which is coming up in November. Our goal this year is $34,507. We need to always remember that it was UCA monies that enabled our parish to build our current church back in the early '90s, and that is matching half of our pledged monies for our current building campaign. Without these funds, our parish, as well as countless other parishes would never be able to accomplish what they need to. Also, the monies help support our retired priests, like Fr. Tom, and our seminarians as well. You can delegate to which ministry of the Archdiocese you wish your donation to go toward. On behalf of the Archbishop, thank-you!

You all have a prayer-full week!

Father Michael Litzel

Attention All Ladies

The Women's Club needs your help!

We will be having our "Country Cupboard" booth again this year at the Women's Club Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, November 9.

If you have canned goods such as tomato juice, pasta sauce, pickles, salsa, green beans, etc., homemade cookies, candy, pies, jelly or your special recipe that you would like to donate to be sold in our cupboard we certainly would appreciate it. You can leave non-perishable items on the shelf at the top of the stairway leading downstairs. Perishable items can be brought to the lower level on November 8th anytime from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Please contact Jan Adams at 317-508-4458 for more information.

Catholic Charities 100th Anniversary

The Secretariat of Catholic Charities is hosting a 100th Anniversary Celebration on Wednesday, November 20. Mass begins at 5:30 p.m. at Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, with a reception and dinner at 6:30 p.m. at the Catholic Center (1400 North Meridian Street, Indianapolis, 46202) This is an opportunity to celebrate a century of impact across Central & Southern Indiana and ensure the continued work for the poor and vulnerable. Sr. Donna Markham, OP, PhD, President and CEO of Catholic Charities USA, will be joining us. Ticket Information can be found at <http://www.archindy.org/cc> Please purchase tickets by November 4.

St. Susanna Christmas Auction

You are invited to the St. Susanna Women's Club Annual Christmas Auction. It will be held in the Parish Center east and west on Sunday, November 10, at 1:00 p.m. Take advantage of this opportunity to have a relaxing and enjoyable afternoon while getting some Christmas shopping done. Admission is free and light refreshments will be served. Proceeds will go toward scholarships for our youth.
