"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

One need only glance briefly at today's readings to realize that the liturgical year of the Church is once more drawing to a close. These readings are visionary ones describing the "end times."

Jesus' exhortation in the Gospel alerts us to the importance of heeding His words: "You will be hated by all because of My Name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives." In other words, His words are the words of eternal life. Nothing of this earth will last forever. Nothing else we "hang our hats on" will truly bring us fulfillment and lasting joy.

As the liturgical year draws to a close next weekend with the glorious Solemnity of Christ the King, let us be vigilant at all times, strengthened in our resolve to better live the treasure that is our Catholic faith and welcome the Lord Jesus into our hearts at all times, most especially in the reception of Our King in Holy Communion and through His forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance. In every time and place let us strive to welcome Jesus into our hearts, our minds and our souls! Let us receive him worthily and often. Let us abstain when in mortal sin. Let us remain following the reception of Holy Communion in order to thank Him!

Wow, Thanksgiving is almost upon us already! I don't know about you, but it sure seems early this year! What better way to celebrate Thanksgiving than to thank God for ALL He has given us? That IS, after-all, the true meaning of the holiday! This year will be a tough one for the family and me. Mom's 96th birthday would have been on Thanksgiving this year. It won't be the same for sure. But, I try to think back on how blessed we were to have Mom for all these years. I know she's watching over us; checking that everything is just right for the dinner! Not too early to remind one and all that our Vigil Mass for Thanksgiving Day will be offered on Wednesday, November 27, at 7:00 p.m. I have always found it gives folks time on Thanksgiving Day to travel, etc. Hope to see you all there!

On a personal note, my sincere thanks to all who expressed best wishes on the occasion of my birthday! It's nice to know that there are folks praying for you!

As of this date, our parish has pledged $6,654.00 toward our goal of $ 34,507.50 in the UCA of Time, Talent and Treasure. God's blessings upon all who have turned in their cards. May God continue to bless our nation and our people!

Father Michael Lutzel

Lois Ray, Volunteer Extraordinaire!

We would like to honor Lois Ray and show our appreciation to her for more than 20 years of volunteer service to our parish. She has worked mostly in the parish office as well as on the Art & Environment Committee. Lois has gone above and beyond by providing what anyone needed no matter what. Every job she did was done with excellence and a labor of love for the church. Please join us for Mass on Tuesday, November 19, at 5:30 p.m. followed by a pitch-in dinner in her honor in the Parish Hall.

On Sunday, December 8, the Middle School and High School will be having their Christmas party from 3:30 - 9:00 p.m. We will be shopping for Christmas gifts to help some families, eating dinner at Culver's, and then going to the Indianapolis Zoo for lights. We will shop and eat in Plainfield and go downtown about 6:00. We will leave the zoo about 8:45 p.m. The night will be $20. Please RSVP by Tuesday, December 3.

NCYC Will Have Online Viewing

The National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) is November 21-24. There will be 25,000 High School Catholics and their chaperones from all over North America coming to downtown Indianapolis to enjoy a weekend long retreat together to help them grow closer to God. The theme this year is Blessed, Broken, and Given rooted from Luke 24:13-35 in the scripture account of Jesus meeting with the two disciples on their way to Emmaus after the resurrection.

Thank you to everyone who donated to the cookie sale! We raised $500 to help the teens enjoy NCYC!! Please pray for our teens as they embark on this wonderful experience.

You will be able to see some online live viewing of the retreat. If you go to Google, type in NCYC 2019 live stream, the web page will pop up and you will be able to view from here.
