1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend while I am away, we welcome Monsignor David Walker from Food for the Poor, to St. Mary's. Welcome, Monsignor!

Most of us would regard good memory as a blessing. Good what? Oh, yeah, good memory! Yet a great Doctor of the Church, St. John of the Cross, warned that spiritual growth requires memory to be brought under strict control. Why?

For St. John of the Cross, an undisciplined memory churns up past sin, recalling the momentary enjoyment/pleasure...and the lasting regret. So it was with the prophet Isaiah and St. Peter. Just when growth in the spiritual way beckons, sin rises from the dust of memory, points an accusing finger and asks, "Are you sure you desire to grow closer to God, with me in your baggage?"

When are we most likely to understand the full horror of our sins than when we truly appreciate the compassion and mercy of God? We overcome those sad memories when we have offended God through the virtue of hope, telling us to look not back, but forward to the life in and of Christ.

We cannot and should not forget our sinful past, but our past must be just that: past. I always remember former Archbishop Daniel saying: "We cannot hold ourselves prisoners to the past." Of course his point is the same as the Lord's; what is past is prologue, do not hold yourself in chains because of past, forgiven sins. In an ironic sense, to do so, is truly prideful. It is almost as if we are saying to Jesus, "I know You say I am forgiven, but I just won't believe it; I cannot accept it." Remembering what Jesus in effect told St. Peter: "Fear not the past. I have something better for you." Step out into the deep and trust in Christ. Now, that is a good memory to hold on to!

I want to say a BIG THANK-YOU to those who are continuing their Campaign pledge and also to those who had yet not started but have now! We are so very close to the point of approaching the Archdiocese to obtain the remaining portion of the total project in the form of an Archdiocesan loan. Simply put, the more pledges we have paid in, the less our parish will have to borrow; the shorter time it will take to pay down the loan. Again, thank-you for supporting your parish!

It's a tad early, but remember ASH WEDNESDAY is on the horizon. Masses will be March 6 at noon and 7:00 p.m.

Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Michael Letour

Elementary RE:

The time of our First Communion Mass has been changed! Our level 2 students will now celebrate the sacrament of the Eucharist on Saturday, May 4, at the 5:00 p.m. Mass. This year's class is large and the church will be full of family and friends; regular attendees may wish to consider a different Mass that weekend.

MQP will be hosting its own Vacation Bible School this June, to be thoroughly Catholic in instruction. As a result we cannot rely on other partner churches to supply several volunteers. We are depending on our own parishioners to be part of the action and make the week happen for our young disciples-in-training. If you can help mornings of June 17-21, talk with Matthew Fallon about the various roles available.

Your children can 'flex their golden pipes' in a choral event at the Indianapolis cathedral coming up next month. Take a look at the flyers, and get an entry form, on the stairwell bulletin board.

The Serra Club is accepting entries for their annual essay contest. The contest is open until March 8th to all Catholic students in grades 7-12. The contest winner at each grade will be awarded $100. Find more information including the theme, and entry forms on the stairwell bulletin board.

CYO Camp Rancho Framasa is accepting reservations for their summer programs. Find brochures in the religious education building.

Adult RE:

Our first service opportunity of the spring is a Habitat for Humanity build right here in Danville! Watch for more details as they become available regarding our work date in March/April.

On Sunday, February 24, the Middle School and High School are going laser tagging in Avon after 10:30 Mass. We will grab Subway and then head to laser tag. We will be done around 4:00 p.m. The day's event will be $20. Please RSVP to Beth Dieckmann by Wednesday, February 20.

Catholic Relief Services in Venezuela

The political and economic crisis in Venezuela is hitting our Catholic brothers and sisters hard - 87% of the population lives below the poverty line. Our charitable organization, Catholic Relief Services, is helping with emergency food, water, and medicine deliveries among the people. If you would like to make a donation to support this relief effort you may give online (www.crs.org/venezuela-crisis), by phone (1-877-HELP-CRS) or by check (Catholic Relief Services, P.O. Box 17526, Baltimore, MD 21298-8180).
