"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

I can't think of anyone who hasn't wrestled with how to handle someone they know can't stand them. In today's Gospel, such a person is referred to as an "enemy."

The words Jesus spoke were contrary to common belief and cultural practice. In other words, if someone wronged you, you not only had the right to exact revenge, you were expected to do so! As humbling as it may be, we must admit that there remains a part in each one of us that feels and believes the same way, isn't there? We know we should feel differently, but when wronged, especially with no justification, it is so very difficult to "let go and let God."

It should come as no surprise to any of us that without the grace of God, we can never forgive; it's simply not in our make-up to do so. We are fallible human beings. Without His grace, we won't be able to do it, plain and simple. Rather than bringing us down in despair, we, as people of faith, should rejoice in this truth. We know that "with God, all things are possible."

Jesus promises us that if we acknowledge our need; acknowledge our need of His grace, we can be changed from a people seeking revenge to a people of faith! But, it's still hard to do!

I think one way Jesus allows His grace to work within us in situations like these is when we are able to recognize that when someone hurts us and continues to do so, they are saying much more about their hearts and their lives than whatever "the issue" may be on their minds. In other words, we may be an object of their derision or scorn, but it is they who are in need of healing. When you see someone scowling all the time; someone who never speaks a word of welcome, then you can be certain that their life contains much suffering; real or imagined. Rather than feel slighted, it's our call to pray for them. And, this is sometimes much more difficult to do than it sounds, right? It is possible, however.

This weekend as we stand at the door of Lent this coming Wednesday let us ask the good God to strengthen our desire to be a people of forgiveness; not revenge.

May God, Who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion!

Father Michael Lutzel

Women's Club

Christmas Bazaar Raffle

It might seem a bit early to be thinking about this, but we want to give folks plenty of time to craft an item or at least give some consideration to what they might donate for the annual raffle. So far, we have already received three donations (a handmade quilt, a collection of gift cards valued at $200+ and a beef bundle valued at $100+). Please contact Anita Dieckmann at 317-745-6493 to give us an idea of what you might be able to donate.

Undergarment Donations Collection

This is just a reminder that the Women's Club will be starting the annual March collection of undergarments the weekend of March 1. Look for updates in future bulletins. The donations are greatly appreciated by those less fortunate than we are.
