"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today we hear the first of three Gospel stories of conversion that will unfold in the next three weeks of Lent. They are proclaimed to help the Elect; those chosen and preparing for reception into the Church at the Easter Vigil, to complete their conversion to Christ Jesus and His Church. However, they are also meant for each one of us "old Catholics" as well!

As they travel to Baptism and reception, we walk with them as witnesses to all the Lord has done for us on our own road to conversion. We walk to that same font where, at Easter, we will renew our baptismal promises, recalling the day we were joined to Christ and His Church. He is the living water that springs up to provide eternal life!

As you leave Mass today, reflect on the Gospel story. Imagine yourself sitting at the well with the Lord Jesus. What questions would He ask you? What are the sinful traps into which you have fallen and from which you want to be freed? That's what Lent is all about for each one of us!

As we continue our Lenten journey, remember, Daily Mass and the Stations of the Cross are excellent means of making this a prayerful Lent for YOU! Our Stations attendance has been good. There is the Fish Fry going on also, so a great way to take care of both body and soul!

On a wonderful side note...this coming March 19th, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, we begin the beautiful season of SPRING! We made it through another winter. We must admit, it really wasn't that bad this year....now watch, we will get hammered before Easter on April 12th!

Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Michael Lutzel
