

EASTER SUNDAY

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:6-7

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Felicia Osmialowski, and pray for the care and consolation her family. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Prayer is to our soul what rain is to the soil.

St. John Vianney

How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (On the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

From Beth Dieckmann, MQP Youth Minister

Dear Mary, Queen of Peace Parishioners,

It is with excitement and sadness that I share with you I have accepted a position as Director of Religious Education and Youth Minister at Holy Family Catholic Church in Oldenburg, IN starting May 5th. Mary Queen of Peace has always been my home parish and I am grateful for the support and encouragement I have received over the years on my faith journey.

There are so many to thank that I cannot list everyone but thank you for the support, time, prayers, and activities that you have volunteered for that support the youth. I want to thank Father Mike for giving me the experience of being an employee here and helping me see what my vocation is in life.

To the youth, I will miss you dearly. Continue your faith journey and support the new youth minister. I have faith that whoever fills the position will make sure to keep the teens involved. I plan to be around still on weekends after my start date and will be here for the night of Confirmation. Thank you again for being such an awesome parish; I couldn't be more blessed.

God Bless,

Beth Dieckmann

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

A HAPPY AND GLORIOUS EASTER TO YOU ALL!!
May the Spirit of the Risen Christ shine upon you on this most joyous day! To those visiting St. Mary, Queen of Peace via the internet, a hearty welcome!!

Today hundreds of millions around the world will gather spiritually to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. From St. Peter's in the Vatican to Danville, IN; throughout the world, the defining event for the Church draws people from every race and culture to praise God for the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection.

Each year, today's celebration of Easter allows the believer to ask in his or her heart: what difference does the resurrection of Jesus make in my daily life? In the past year, since we last gathered to celebrate this holy day, have there been moments in my life in which the risen Christ truly shone forth? Have I lived my life in the light and joy of Easter faith or remained sealed in the tomb of sin, sarcasm and fear?

The Beloved Disciple, St. John, goes to great lengths in narrating the event of the Resurrection of Jesus. He wants us to know that, with his own eyes, he saw the burial cloths, folded neatly in the tomb. To arrange the cloths neatly, as they were found, suggests something quite unique. So his account is precious evidence of a truly extraordinary event. The Beloved Disciple allows us to share in his own experience, to share in the moment when everything began to fit together, when he began to understand fully that death is not the end; Christ triumphs!

Today is the day of days to allow the joy of Easter to ring through our lives! Today is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it! Alleluia!

As we observe this most unusual Easter Sunday, always remember my friends that the Risen Lord remains in our midst, most especially in the Most Blessed Sacrament! Unite in prayer with your family spiritually to truly observe this most holy of days! The glory of the Resurrection dawns on our world in a time of continued uncertainty; but it DOES DAWN! Let us continue to pray for one another. Let us also pray that soon this pandemic disease will be vanquished from our midst!

CHRIST IS RISEN, INDEED HE HAS RISEN! I wish one and all a very joyous Easter Season! God bless you all! ALLELUIA!

Father Michael Suter

Knights of Columbus Corner

You can pray the Rosary with us daily on our Facebook page or Mary, Queen of Peace's Facebook page. We usually start at 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9:30 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. If you cannot join us live, the site will allow you to bring the Rosary up at a later time and you can follow us praying the rosary.

Happy Easter to all!

The Council is working on the scholarships and will be in contact with the applicants soon.

With the Covid-19 outbreak, we must pray for the victims and their love ones of the virus as well as the care givers and first responders.

Events planned thus far by the Council are on hold as is everything else. As soon as the situation of the virus lessens we will start planning again and I will update you!

If anyone would like information about the Knights of Columbus or would like to join our Council, please contact me at rowdy251@yahoo.com or call 317-354-5603.

Thank you!
