3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread. —Lk 24:35

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Peggy Cave, Eileen Clark, Jim Goldman, Dick Griffith, Debbie Little, Anthony Martinez, Mark Orelup, Goldie Parsons, Rex Parsons, David & Dee Sheets, Mary Shelton, Mary Schmitt, Helen Schweizer, Lois Staresina, Debbie Such, and Mary Williams. We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (On the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

Liturgical Ministers Scheduling

Even though Masses are currently suspended during this pandemic situation, scheduling for the next liturgical schedule is underway. All active liturgical ministers should have received notification to update any preferences and indicate unavailable times. The current plan is to prepare the schedule as usual, and then cancel as necessary. Thank you for your continued efforts to assist with Mary Queen of Peace Masses.

Bereavement Ministry

If you have lost a loved one recently or know of a parishioner who has, please contact Helen Disney so that we can include the family in our ministry. 317-745-4867 or jimandhelendisney@gmail.com

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

As our Easter Season continues to unfold, we are invited once more to ponder the mystery of the Resurrection. St. Peter's inspiring words in the first reading call us to an unwavering Easter faith.

St. Peter urges us to hold fast to the things that truly matter, namely the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ; in other words, to the Holy Eucharist. We also join the disciples on the road to Emmaus.

On that journey, which is actually a microcosm of a lifetime's journey of faith, we are reminded that it is in the "breaking of the bread," again the Holy Eucharist, that we encounter the very Presence of the risen Christ! Here we find Him in one another, in the sacred word proclaimed and preached. Here we are called to receive Him, truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, in Holy Communion! Let us always come with grateful hearts to this most Sacred Banquet!

Part and parcel of coming with grateful hearts to the celebration of the Holy Mass is to come with hearts filled with humility as well. A grateful heart is a humble heart. Far too often we come to Holy Mass with our minds totally preoccupied with other things. Naturally, part of this is human reality; we are beset with issues, problems, joys and sufferings. Between those and the pandemic, it's a wonder we can center ourselves on the Divine Mystery unfolding among us at all! But, that is our sacred call. We do well to remember, as did the disciples who recognized Jesus "in the breaking of the Bread," that this unfolding; this Presence among us comes to us on HIS terms, not our own. WE DO NOT CONTROL GOD! How difficult it is for us at times to accept this reality. Is it not?

It may sound corny, but we never give up; we are loved. The hurts we try to hide; He knows. We all need to be heard; and Jesus hears us!

As the disciples on the way to Emmaus humbly came to see and know Jesus, so may we all do the same! God help us to do so!

May the risen Christ shine upon you all!

Knights of Columbus Corner

You can pray the Rosary with us daily on our Facebook page or Mary, Queen of Peace's Facebook page. We usually start at 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9:30 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. If you cannot join us live, the site will allow you to bring the Rosary up at a later time and you can follow us praying the rosary.

The Council is working on the scholarships and will be in contact with the applicants soon.

With the Covid-19 outbreak, we must pray for the victims and their love ones of the virus as well as the care givers and first responders.

If anyone would like information about the Knights of Columbus or would like to join our Council, please contact me at rowdy251@yahoo.com or call 317-354-5603.
