*My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. ### How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mcpdanville.org (On the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

These several Sundays of parables continue this weekend as Jesus teaches three final lessons about the kingdom of heaven. The first two, the parables of the treasure and the pearl, point to the inestimable value of the kingdom; and, by extension, our Catholic Faith.

The third, about the fish and nets, is similar to last weekend's parable about the weeds in the field. It focuses our attention on the separation of the good from the evil at the end of time. Jesus' question to His disciples, "Do you understand all these things?" is directed to US as well.

The goal of our Lord in preaching the parables has been to bring us closer to the very nearness and presence of His kingdom. That kingdom is not something up in the sky or down the road for which we idly wait.

In the sacrament of baptism, we are called to be active builders of His kingdom. As people drawn together and united by the Holy Eucharist, we are called to bring His Eucharistic presence to our world, in order to give the world a glimpse of the fullness of that kingdom that is to come!

I feel a bit like the angels on that first Christmas night when I say: "Hark, I bring you tidings of great joy!" I have received word from the Archdiocese that given YOUR tremendous generosity and commitment to our parish and the additional request I have made to raise the approximately $200,000 for the Office Wing of the Campaign, we have been granted approval to proceed! They, along with myself, are confident that our parish can indeed raise the additional monies needed in order to move forward. It is a testament to everyone's generous support and vision of our expansion for the future. Therefore, the architect and construction crews have been given the okay to include the offices! With the building of approximately 390 new homes, which is the word around town, just west of the parish, St. Mary's will continue to grow into the future. As a parish, we have done a fantastic feat thus far in the pledges that have been paid and even extended. In comparison, I know of other projects that have been far less successful up to this point in our campaign and building. As a reminder, IF you have not fulfilled your initial pledge, please continue on its fulfillment. And, IF you can pledge anything additionally to the needed funds for the office area, PLEASE PRAY about it! It truly is both a visible and spiritual testament to the Catholic presence here in Danville!

Have a "prayer-full" week, everyone!

Father Michael Litzard

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

If our treasure is in God,
no one can take it from us.
