A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mcpdanville.org (On the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

Congratulations and welcome to the newest members of our parish family.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Last week's Gospel focused our attention on the persistent (remember, some would say pushy!) Canaanite woman, to whom Jesus said, "O woman, great is your faith."

Today our attention is drawn back to Saint Peter, who our Lord names as the "Rock" upon whom He will build His Church. It was to St. Peter that Jesus proclaimed, "You are Peter...to you I will give the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven."

At times it can be somewhat difficult for us to see the correlation between the readings that comprise the Liturgy of the Word at Mass. At other times, it's not difficult at all. Today is one of those occasions.

For the people first hearing the Gospels, the imagery of "keys" being entrusted to another was quite common. They knew well the Old Testament story from Isaiah we shared today; the story of Shebna and Eliakim.

Eliakim became, in effect, the Prime Minister of the Palace; carrying the keys of the palace upon his shoulder and chest. He acted in the person of the king. To him was given the responsibility of either allowing persons access to the king or barring their entrance. It was no idle or insignificant position.

Borrowing this truism, our Lord Jesus Christ declared Peter to be His representative; to be the one entrusted with the keys to His eternal Kingdom both on earth as well as in heaven. This, too, was and remains, an office of supreme importance in the Church. It was to Peter and his successors, that Christ entrusted His Bride, the Church. He would never leave the Church without leadership and without His voice.

At times, I don't believe we really appreciate the great treasure and comfort Christ has given us. In a world filled with contrasting and conflicting voices and values, we look to the Successor of St. Peter for reassurance and the authority of Christ Himself.

Ultimately, we have to confess we are a people who don't much care for others telling us what to do. It is somehow "wired" into our minds to rebel and resist, even when we know it is in our best interest.

It is an unfortunate consequence of Original Sin really. First, Lucifer rebelled against God. Next, our first parents, Adam and Eve, fell to the same obsession of pride to rebel against the voice of God. They chose to be "gods" themselves. And, we live with the results to our very day.

Yes, in the Sacrament of Baptism, we were "set aright" and washed clean of this Original Sin. However, the propensity to resist remains a part of us. Like St. Peter himself, we, too, can fall and deny Jesus; choosing our own authority; our own "gods."

In these turbulent days in which we live, THE surest way for us to find and maintain our peace is for us to remain steadfast in the treasure that is our Catholic Faith; most importantly, the Holy Mass. Let us turn to the Lord in the Eucharist for our unity and peace!

Father Michael Suted

Confirmation 2020-2021

If your teen is going into the 8th grade and has attended Religious Education at Mary, Queen of Peace before, they are ready to begin Confirmation Preparation classes.

We are having a meeting on Wednesday, August 26, at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. In order to keep numbers down, only one parent and their confirmation student per family should attend the meeting. Please wear a mask. We will have hand sanitizer available upon entry to the area.

You will receive a packet at the meeting with the registration paperwork, schedule, and "Getting to Know the Teen" pages. This registration packet is due on or before September 13th. The fee for Confirmation Preparation class is $150. This fee covers the overnight Confirmation retreat. The fee is due at the time the registration packet is turned in.

Due to the uncertainty of the times, there will be changes made along the way to accommodate social distancing, fluctuations in guidelines, and to ensure the safest possible health environment for all.

Our first class will be Sunday, September 13, from 9:00 a.m. – 10:20 a.m.

We are on hold with planning the Confirmation Retreat due to COVID-19. As soon as we have more information on the overnight retreat we will notify all parents and students. We are going to try to have a day long "mini-retreat" this fall at our parish.

Peace and Blessings!

Oktoberfest Raffle

This is a friendly reminder not to forget to mail-in or drop-off your raffle tickets and payments. If you have not received or have misplaced your raffle tickets, no worries, you will have opportunities to purchase tickets in September. Don't miss your chance to win $1,000!

Also coming in September, we will be selling drive-thru dinner tickets in advance before and after Masses. We will be setting up a table outside in the parking lot to maintain our social distance. This event will be open to the public on the day of the event so don't wait - get your tickets in advance! You must pay for the dinner tickets and raffle tickets separately due to the State Charity Gaming rules. Thank you.

Keep posted for more information to come and thanks in advance for supporting our parish.
