How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (On the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

Congratulations and welcome to the newest member of our parish family.

The parishioners of St. Mary, Queen of Peace extend a warm welcome to our newest members:

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Patricia Pell, wife of Donald Pell, and pray for the care and consolation of her family. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways, says the Lord."

It is close to impossible for us to grasp the depths of God's mercy and generosity isn't it? We need look no further than the parable in today's Gospel for an example.

Most people today would think that the landowner is clearly in the wrong for paying someone who worked a full day the same wage as someone who worked only the last hour of the day. Fair is fair, right?

Obviously, the parable is not about social justice or the federal minimum wage act, or labor unions. It is meant to grab our attention and to get us thinking about God's MERCY. Very simply, our Father's ways of thinking and acting are often times not our ways of thinking and acting. Our Father wants us to know that we have the need to turn our lives around. God always, always desires us each and every moment of our lives.

Perhaps you could reflect on one way you have experienced the Father's generous mercy. How does this find expression in your daily life?

Tickets for the upcoming (September 25th) OKTOBERFEST 2020, continue to sell briskly! If you would like to volunteer in ANY way with this year's "drive through Fest," please contact Ketty Palmer, the event Chair! It seems as though it will be a big success!

Isn't the progress going great on our new facility?! It's finally beginning to look like something, isn't it? We can now see how the building will look when completed; hopefully in late December! Thanks, again, for your generosity and continued pledging!!

May the Good Lord continue to bless us!

Father Michael Suter

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.*
