How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

"He is there! He Who loves us So much!"

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The month of November is upon us. In the rich history of the Church, November has been seen as a very special time to pray for and remember our beloved dead. Irregardless of the language one wishes to use in speaking of this holy practice, it is good to reflect upon this foundational facet of the Creed; the Communion of the Saints.

Let us take a look at this tenet of our Catholic Faith; in fact, of all Christendom. The Saints in heaven are named the Church Triumphant. The Church on this earth (that's you and me and all of our brothers and sisters in faith) is named the Church Militant. The word is used very deliberately. Like it or not, aware of it or not, you and I are in spiritual battle. The forces of darkness and death buffet us daily. At times, we are simply too dull to see it or be aware of it. It is not paranoia; it is a mature, faith-filled reality that we must be cognizant of. The third component, if you will, of the Communion of the Saints, is the Church Suffering. All segments of the Church unite in prayer. Our Faith teaches us that death does not end our relationships with those who have gone before us; they are merely changed.

One aspect of the Communion of the Saints we need to clear up is that Vatican II "did away with" the doctrine of Purgatory. In NO way was or is this the case. Quite frankly, I could never understand why some were so hasty to believe this falsehood or even seem to propagate this mistaken notion. When properly understood, the Church's teaching on Purgatory is one of comfort. We ask those on earth each day to pray for us, don't we? We ask the Saints to intercede on our behalf (or we should!). We, in turn, pray for our beloved dead. That, in a nutshell, is the Communion of the Saints. That, in the same shell, is what Purgatory is all about. At times, when conducting a funeral service at the funeral home or at a committal service, I can see in the faces of those who do not share our belief in prayer for dead, a blankness or stare that mirrors an interior sadness.

Being born in November, as were three of the four of my immediate family, November has always been a special month for me. The falling leaves, the crispness of the cold air, and anticipation of what is to come, has helped shape me, if you will. I often find this time of All Hallows' Eve, All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, to be a time of remembrance and reflection.

I loved All Hallows' Eve, aka "Hallowe'en". I always made the connection with the Feast of All Saints and, going to a Catholic school meant we always had a free day the next day! Remember? Oh, how we liked to tell our Protestant friends we had a free day!

I loved All Saints Day Mass; the incense, the resplendent white and gold vestments, the hymns. For, even though it was a free day from school, it was never a question of whether or not to celebrate Mass that day!

I loved the black vestments of All Souls' Day and the emphasis placed on praying for loved ones gone before us. Somehow, it always made them seem closer and still with us. I suppose in a little boy's mind, it helped make the Communion of the Saints come alive. It still does. Remember Jesus' words about becoming like little children? Well, much of faith calls for this open, trusting attitude doesn't it?

"May the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace."

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Council daily for the rosary. Join us on our Facebook page or on Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page..

Upcoming events: Fish Fry on Friday, November 6th. Serving is from 4 to 7:30 p.m. This will be a drive-thru service as before and cost is a free-will offering. Please enter from Mackey Road. All monies collected from the fish fry will be going to the Mary Queen of Peace building fund. The Council will also be selling trash bags at the fish fry. This money will go to the Council.

Breakfast for Sunday, November 15th has been tabled for another time.

The Raffle is still in the planning stages and more details will follow as they become available.

The Council contributed $250 each to the following: Little Sisters of the Poor; Gibault; Danville Fire Department Safe Haven Baby Box. Additional money may go the Baby Box for Danville in the future.

The Council is also bidding on kitchen equipment being auctioned off from the IMS (gas fryers, heat lamps for food warming).

Upcoming topics: Televisions for the Parish new addition and Church basement so Mass can be viewed. New furniture for the addition as well as cafeteria tables.

The Council thanks all for their support!

Interested in the Knights of Columbus? Contact Mark Richardt at (317) 354-5603 or email at rowdy251@yahoo.com for information or gaining membership.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

ATTENTION: Liturgical Ministers

Needs for the upcoming weeks include: one Extraordinary Minister of Communion and four Ministers of Hospitality for each weekend Mass. Also, servers may volunteer. Your help is needed so we can carry on with the celebration of the Mass. Please sign-up for the Mass of your choice through the MSP app or send Mary Kay Hood an email. Thank you for your help.

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Peggy Cave, Eileen Clark, Bill Fattic, Jim Goldman, Dick Griffith, Fr. Victor Karls, Kelsea Kushner, Fr.

Victor Laroche, Dr. Vladimir Laroche, Debbie Little, Anthony Martinez, Goldie Parsons, Rex Parsons, Matthias Pfister, Andrew Rehn, Joe Saddler, Mary Schmitt, Helen Schweizer, David & Dee Sheets, Mary Shelton, Lois Staresina, Debbie Such, and Mary Williams.

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

“Look through any Window. What do you see? Smiling faces all around.”

The new construction at our parish is so exciting. Our young people will be thrilled to have a new classroom to attend on Sunday mornings. We are announcing a special opportunity for our parishioners to sponsor a classroom window. A plate will be placed at each window with your family name on it or in memory / in honor of a family member. There is a limited number of windows available, so be a part of this memorable and golden “window of opportunity”. To sponsor a window, the cost is $500.00.

If you are interested or have questions please contact Joe Pecar at 317-840-1401 or email at PecarJoe@gmail.com.
