How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

The parishioners of St. Mary, Queen of Peace extend a warm welcome to our newest members:

Blake & Carrie Stiff and their children,
Alexa and Conner.

and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."*

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's readings offer us words of consolation and words of warning. (Funny how they often do that isn't it?) The first reading draws our attention to the person of Holy Wisdom, whose presence can free us from the worries and anxieties of this passing world. Not by magic but by faith are we to live. St. Paul's beautiful words to the Church in Thessalonica are a comfort for those who recently lost a loved one. In this month of November in which we especially remember and pray for our deceased loved ones, his words strike a deep chord within our hearts.

As Ordinary Time begins to wind down, we start to hear about the "end times." We are warned to "stay awake," to be prepared for the coming of the Lord. These scriptural words of warning, which always resound at the end of the Church year, remind us we are to live our lives in preparation for the life that is to come. This time of November always speaks of endings as well as new beginnings. It's a time to pray for what has passed, in the person of our loved ones. It is also a time to prepare, once more, to celebrate a new beginning of graced opportunity in the coming season of Advent and to mark once more, the coming of Jesus Christ!

The responsorial psalm said it all today: "My soul is thirsting for You, O Lord my God." Let's make that our prayer as we journey through these days of November and prepare our hearts during the coming Advent season to welcome the Lord once more!

As you all can see, the work on our new building is really coming along! It is hoped that we can start moving in by the end of the year. I anticipate many "odds and ends" that will have to be purchased or thought of before everything is ship-shape...it's only natural. I THANK ONE AND ALL FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR NEW FACILITY! For those who have paid off your pledge(s), DANKE! If you are still working to pay your pledge, DANKE!

This coming Wednesday, the nation observes Veterans' Day. It's a great day to thank our veterans for their service to our country and the perfect day to offer Mass for the vets, their intentions and for those who lost their lives in service to our freedoms. Having a Dad who served as a B-17 pilot during WW II, and of course celebrating a birthday that day, Veterans' Day has always been a very special day for me. Of course, back in the good ole days, going to a Catholic school, we never had school on Veterans' Day either! Mass will be offered at Noon. Let us join in prayer on this special day! And thank a vet!

God Bless Us One and All!!

Liturgical Ministers are Needed

When we think about the future, we may wonder: Are we doing all that God has called us to do? If you have been thinking about becoming more involved in Mass, now is the time to act. There is a need for additional people to help with all aspects of Mass:

VETERANS DAY
WE HONOR YOUR SACRIFICE

“Look through any Window. What do you see? Smiling faces all around.”

The new construction at our parish is so exciting. Our young people will be thrilled to have a new classroom to attend on Sunday mornings. We are announcing a special opportunity for our parishioners to sponsor a classroom window. A plate will be placed at each window with your family name on it or in memory / in honor of a family member. There is a limited number of windows available, so be a part of this memorable and golden “window of opportunity”. To sponsor a window, the cost is $500.00.

If you are interested or have questions, please contact Joe Pecar at 317-840-1401 or email at PecarJoe@gmail.com.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
