Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

The parishioners of St. Mary, Queen of Peace extend a warm welcome to our newest members:

Nathan & Jessica Burkhart and their son, Elijah.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Donald J. Pell, and pray for the care and consolation of his family. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

It's hard to believe but this weekend we celebrate Gaudete Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent. "Time flies when you're having fun." Coming from the Latin for "rejoice", today the rose candle of our Advent wreath is lit. The blending of the penitential violet and the white of Christmas gives us cause to rejoice that the glory of Christmas draws near!

Last week, the Letter of St. Peter reminded us to conduct ourselves in holiness and devotion as we await the coming of our Lord Jesus. This week, the prophet Isaiah tells us what it means to be someone upon whom the Holy Spirit comes to rest.

When each one of us was baptized and later confirmed, the Holy Spirit came upon us, making us sons and daughters of God. As we heard in today's first reading, let us pray that we will become more and more a people who bring "glad tidings" to others. Let us pray to be a people of Advent hope and joy rather than one from whom others turn away because our demeanor and countenance says anything but joy.

On this Gaudete Sunday, let us pray for one another. In a world torn apart by Covid, closures, abuse, lay-offs and all the other evils mankind must somehow survive, let us pray that each of us draws closer to our Eucharistic Christ. It is only through, with and in Jesus in the Holy Eucharist that we will ever know peace, not only for ourselves but for our world as well. Sometimes it's not always easy to remain hope-filled. Our fears, anxieties, and own lack of confidence in Jesus' Presence can make it almost impossible to remain in Advent hope. That's where we can help one another. Every day, pray for others. Offer your own doubts and fears that another may know Jesus and His Presence. You may never know who this other person was or is that your prayers have helped. It is enough to know that they have helped!

Please note well via the bulletin and website, the Christmas Mass schedule! It remains the same as in the past with some very notable exceptions ... Our capacity for each Mass will be right at 160 ONLY. "First come, first seated", will be the norm. There will be NO holding of seats as in the past years; it is not fair to others coming to Holy Mass. The Ministers of Hospitality will be keeping count for each Mass; when we reach capacity, that will be it. This year, "it is what it is," beyond our control. Please do not feel badly if you make the personal decision to watch our Midnight Mass on YouTube or Mass from Rome with Pope Francis. In these days, we take extra care for one another. IF you are planning on attending and are in one of the various ministries, PLEASE sign up with Mary Kay Hood.

I continue to be here for confessions each Wednesday from 6-7 pm in the lower level during Advent. Also, of course, on the usual Saturday schedule. We have had a great turn out for confessions thus far! Keep it up!

Last year, before the pandemic hit us, I had begun praying about our monthly offering of First Thursday time of Eucharistic Adoration. For the past two years, no one has signed up for a half hour of Adoration; often leaving only one adorer present in the kirche. This fact has been consistent for quite some time; month after month. This is not safe for any adorer, be it male or female. Due to perhaps many factors, including, but not limited to, lack of time or interest, I sadly announce that our monthly First Thursday Adoration has ended with last week's offering. I will continue to offer monthly First Friday Adoration/Benediction one half hour before our 8:30 am Mass. Perhaps in the future, our extended Adoration will return. We can only pray it is so!

Come, Lord, do not delay! Come to us, abide with us! God bless you all!

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Council daily on our Facebook page for the Rosary and the Devine Mercy Chaplet. You can also join us on the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page.

The Council wishes to thank all who enjoyed our fish fry this past Friday. There will be more fish fries coming! Tickets for the TV raffle will be sold after Masses with the drawing scheduled for the last Sunday of Advent. Price of a ticket is $5.00.

Two more TV's were purchased by the Council to be used in the new addition bringing the total to 6 including the being raffled off.

The Council has already saved the Parish $4,000 by installing wiring for the service instead of the vendor supplying the man power. We have also saved the Parish close to $3,000 in equipment price by finding the same equipment the vendor will supply elsewhere.

The Council is also raising the Scholarship awards to $1,500 from $1,000.

Are you interested in joining the Knights of Columbus or have questions concerning the different activities the Knights are involved in? You can contact Mark Richardt at 317-354-5603 or rowdy251@yahoo.com for information.

Revised Bulletin Deadlines

The holiday season brings with it changed deadlines for submitting the bulletin to our printer. If you have anything you would like included in the bulletin for the following Sundays, please be sure to submit it by the deadline listed.

| Sunday | Deadline |
|---------------|---------------------|
| December 27 | Monday, December 14 |
| January 3 | Monday, December 21 |

Thank you for your cooperation in meeting these deadlines. Articles should be submitted to awray@mpqdanville.org, also a copy to charlottepell@aol.com and tjimbrien@sbcglobal.net.

ATTENTION: Liturgical Ministers

Needs for the upcoming weeks include: one Extraordinary Minister of Communion and four Ministers of Hospitality for each weekend Mass. Your help is needed so we can carry on with the celebration of the Mass. Please sign-up for the Mass of your choice through the MSP app or send Mary Kay Hood an email. Thank you for your help.

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Dan Brennan, Peggy Cave, Eileen Clark, Bill Fattic, Jim Goldman, Dick Griffith, Fr. Victor Karls, Laurel & Bob Kult, Kelsea Kushner, Fr. Victor Laroche, Dr. Vladimir Laroche, Debbie Little, Anthony Martinez, Michael Gerard Moyer, Goldie Parsons, Matthias Pfister, Andrew Rehn, Joe Saddler, Helen Schweizer, David & Dee Sheets, Mary Shelton, Lois Staresina, Debbie Such, and Mary Williams.

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.
