4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

One commentary on today's Gospel makes the point that one line of the Gospel stands out: "The people were astonished at His teaching." St. Mark, of course, is speaking about Jesus' teaching in the synagogue at the beginning of His public ministry. The reason for their astonishment? It was because Jesus taught truth and with perfect conviction.

Looking at our own lives, sometimes we come to Mass or other times of prayer and the words of the Scripture or prayers wash over us. Like the man with an unclean spirit in today's Gospel, we can have too many "spirits" of our own that distract us and make us less receptive to the grace of God. We're not possessed, but we could very well be obsessed with the cares and worries of life when we try to pray.

As we hear how Jesus drives the unclean spirit from the man, let us ask the Lord to drive from our hearts any distractions or sins that prevent us from knowing the true power and joy that only He can offer us! As we gather for Mass and then go forth, let us pray that our hearts will not be hardened, but open to His grace and mercy!

This coming Wednesday, February 3rd, the Church celebrates the feast day of the martyr, St. Blaise. Long invoked as the patron saint of those suffering from diseases of the throat, the prayers of St. Blaise are sought in a special blessing on his feast day.

St. Blaise first studied and became a physician. He was later ordained to the priesthood and made bishop of Sebaste in Armenia, where he was seized and carried off to prison by Agricola, the governor.

On his way to prison, a mother whose child suffered from a disease of the throat implored his help. At his intercession the child was cured and since that time, his help has often been solicited. After cruel torture, the Saint was beheaded in the year 316AD.

Remember that ASH WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH IS APPROACHING. MASSES WILL BE AT NOON AND 7:00 PM. If you have ever watched the Ash Wednesday Mass from Rome, you may remember that the ashes are distributed in a slightly different manner than is normally done here in the US. This year, priests are directed to follow the Roman ritual of sprinkling the ashes on the crown of each person's head, rather than in the shape of the cross on the forehead. Again, the blessing is the same; the manner is different. I wanted to make you all aware of this early. I didn't want Anyone to think it was some crazy thing that I just dreamed up! It would be interesting to research how it is done around the world in various places. So, be prepared for something different this year!

I will be offering "The Light is on For You" on each Wednesday of Lent (except Ash Wednesday), from 6 to 7 pm. By that time, I should be back in the confessional chapel. As was the case last Advent, there will NOT be a penance service. The regular time of 3:45 to 4:30 pm on Saturday also will be used.

Have a good week everyone. God bless you all!

MQP YouTube Channel

This video link, <https://youtu.be/w24jzLT8IWO>, will show you how to find the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube channel for our streaming Masses, Rosary prayers, and other church videos.

The video will show step-by-step how to copy the link for our Masses, and how to subscribe to our church's YouTube channel. When you do this you will then get notices when a video goes live. If we get 1,000 subscribers we will be able to monetize the playing of our videos and will be able to get money for the church.

Please contact Ricardo Laranja if you have any questions about this.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
