How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website:

www.mcpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"I shall not see happiness again." With these mournful words, Job concludes his lament to the Lord. Job was obviously in the depths of despair. His words are echoed in our own lives at times.

Jesus has something else in mind for us. The story in St. Mark's Gospel of the curing of St. Peter's mother-in-law shows us that the Lord wants to lift us up out of despair when it buffets us. To put it in other words, when life seems tough and almost unbearable, Christ stands beside us, offering courage and strength.

The Gospel is good news for us! If today is one of those days or times when we are feeling particularly burdened by illness, disappointment or despair, let us, like the townsfolk in today's Gospel story, bring our cares and gather them at the Lord's altar. The healing of Jesus continues in His holy Church. Now, it is our turn. When we humble ourselves to make a good, heartfelt confession with the firm desire of amendment, we are healed. When we come to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist; we are healed. But we dare not end there. Certainly, each one of us knows someone who is waiting for the healing touch of Jesus. Perhaps He looks to US to extend His healing touch. With hope, let us be attentive to the healing power of our Eucharistic Lord!

A note concerning last year's blessed palms...due to the fact that so many did not receive palms because of the Covid shut down, I am asking those you did receive palm, to burn them in your garden or yard. We do not need to collect any to burn for Ash Wednesday! Danke, bitte.

On a personal note, with the rainy, cold, dreary, Covid situation we continue to find ourselves in, and having had Covid, my very good priest friend, Fr. Jim and I have escaped for the next several days. I gotta get out of here! Being extroverted, I am ready to climb any wall or leap any tall building! This really isn't a true vacation; that involves a white sandy beach or somewhere where the weather is different! As you already know, a Cross priest is here this week-end...thank you, Father!

God bless you all and have a great week!

The Lenten fish fries will start on Friday February 19, 2021 from 4:30 pm to 7:00 pm. The cost will be a free will donation. They will run for six consecutive weeks on every Friday throughout Lent. The Council will be assisting the Youth group in this fundraiser.

Looking forward to discussing ideas for activities for the new year. All are welcome, especially any one new to the Parish.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ATTENTION: Liturgical Ministers

Needs for the upcoming weeks include: one Extraordinary Minister of Communion and four Ministers of Hospitality for each weekend Mass. Your help is needed so we can carry on with the celebration of the Mass. Please sign-up for the Mass of your choice through the MSP app or send Mary Kay Hood an email. Thank you for your help.

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Dan Brennan, Peggy Cave, Eileen Clark, Bill Fattic, Jim Goldman, Dick Griffith, Cathy Hazlett, Fr. Victor Karls, Mike King, Laurel & Bob Kult, Kelsea Kushner, Fr. Welcome Visiting Priest, Rev. Ron Mrozinski

This weekend we welcome Father from Cross Catholic Outreach. He will share some touching stories about the amazing work the ministry performs with mission partners worldwide. Cross Catholic Outreach has very little overhead, and the majority of funds raised go directly to the projects helping the poorest of the poor around the world. To learn more about Cross Catholic Outreach, please visit CrossCatholic.org/outreach or text BLESSINGS to 474747.

“Father Ron,” as he is called by most people, is a priest of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saint Georges in the Caribbean island nation of Grenada. Inspired by the life of Saint Francis of Assisi to work with the poor, Father Ron joined Cross Catholic Outreach in 2002. His life prior to working with Cross was in post-secondary education as a teacher and administrator.

As an Outreach Priest he is able to see the difference Cross Catholic makes in serving the poor in our own hemisphere. “When peoples’ lives are touched by the plight of the poor, then the cross of Christ begins to make sense in their lives,” he says.

An inspiring and compassionate orator, Cross Catholic Outreach is proud to have Father Ron preach on behalf of those we serve — the poorest of the poor.
