How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Richard "Dick" Miller, father of Beth Walliser, and pray for the care and consolation of his family. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"I came that you may have life and have it more abundantly." With these words, proclaimed in today's Gospel, the risen Lord summons us to ponder anew the mystery of sharing in His resurrected life.

To embrace this mystery is to embrace a life filled with both abundance and challenge. Far too many people think that following Jesus should mean that their lives run smoothly all the time, they have no anxieties or worries; basically, that everything is warm and fuzzy, sunshine and rainbows. Well, Easter surprise ... it is not!

The only way to the kind of abundance Jesus speaks of is through the gateway He has shown us ... His total giving of Self for us. You know what that means ... "So I have done, you must do also."

As we continue to celebrate the glory that is Easter, let us ask the Lord today for the grace and strength to ponder His promise with renewed faith. Remember, two weeks ago, we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday. The awesome words Jesus gave to St. Faustina need to remain in our hearts and lips always: "Jesus, I Trust In You!"

The Good Shepherd sometimes needs to push the sheep in the rump with his staff in order to get them to go where they need to go and hear what they need to hear! Welcome to the reality of being a sheep of Jesus!

A wonderful witness to all of the above is one our parish celebrates again this weekend ... more of our children making their First Holy Communion. When we see our children making their First Holy Communion, it should rekindle within us that Eucharistic flame of faith and trust that we profess. When we witness their innocence and wonder at receiving Jesus for the first time, it should make us pray for that same innocence of faith, that same innocence and trust to follow the lead of our Good Shepherd. It serves as an occasion of renewal and rededication not only to the Holy Mass and the Sacred Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, but also to learning more about our Catholic faith, our traditions, devotions and truths!

On a completely other note, the parish will be offering another Fish Fry this coming April 30th from 4:30 to 7:00! You know, the drive-through format is proving to be more successful and less work than the usual sit-down style. Again, a free-will offering will be gladly accepted!

This coming Wednesday, April 28th at 7:00 pm, our candidates for Confirmation will be presented to Archbishop Charles at the Cathedral. Let us congratulate Noah Origer, Kade Clayton, Addyson Beaman, Camden Brewer, Averie Wray, Alexa Stiff, Thaddeus Brown, Brody Saylor, Aiden Whetstone and Logan Fraley. May God bless them abundantly on this next step of their Catholic formation and life!

May Jesus, our Good Shepherd, our Eucharistic Jesus, always smile upon us all!

Father Michael Detrick

We are putting a twist on our annual rummage sale and having it in the church parking lot this time on May 15th from 8-1pm (Rain Date May 22nd). It is an opportunity for parish members to sell their own former treasures and in doing so help the women's club. We are taking reservations for spaces for anyone who would like to sell items out of their trunk or table near their vehicle. Spaces will be approximately 10 X 10 and will cost $10 per space. Any items you have left over will have to go home with you! To reserve your space, please contact Beth Simpson by May 1st at 317-386-3024. Come join the fun and start treasure hunting!
