How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's readings are ones of reassurance and hope. When we hear words such as "love" and "joy" used over and over again in a set of readings, it is a signal for us simply to thank God for the incredible gift given to this world in and through the Person of Jesus Christ.

Here, in His Eucharistic Heart, and only here, can we find the kind of hope and joy that will never desert us or run dry. Here, and only here, can we find the grace that can pull us out of even the deepest despair.

As one departs from Mass today, let us be filled with thanksgiving for the priceless Gift that comes to us through, with and in Christ Jesus!

Today is Mothers' Day! A VERY HAPPY & BLESSED DAY TO ALL THE MOMS OF OUR PARISH!! If gone before us in faith, let us remember and treasure their memory on this special day! It is never the same once Mom has gone but memories sure do mean a lot don't they? Believe me, I always made it a point of taking yellow roses (her favorite). We observe the day by having our traditional May Crowning of the Blessed Mother at the 10:30 Mass. The simple ceremony always brings back fond memories for me attending a Catholic grade school. The entire school would assemble and process from school into the church singing the Litany of the Blessed Mother. Later, during Adoration, an eighth grade girl would crown our church's statue of Mary while a little First Communion girl would carry the crown. Interestingly enough, my two aunts as well as my Mom, all three, had the honor of crowning the statue over their years at Annunciation School! Must be some record!

"Father, what about the Holy Day of the ASCENSION? Is it this Thursday or what?" Well, in answer to that question, remember that the bishops of the United States, with the exception of one or two dioceses, moved the celebration of the ASCENSION to the Seventh Sunday of Easter some years ago. This means that the annual celebration of the ASCENSION will be on that weekend from now on! So, if anyone asks you the question, now you know the answer!

Have a great week, everyone! God bless you all!
