How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, our Lord sends His Apostles out on a mission. This mission is one in which all of us who are baptized are called to participate on a daily basis.

While we may not all be called to drive out demons (although we may think we know a few) or anoint with oil and cure people, we are still called to share the truth of Jesus Christ.

When you think about it, there really are a variety of ways one can "cure" another person. Sometimes all it takes is a smile and a nod of the head or an inquiry as to how the other person is feeling. Showing basic Christian kindness and respect go a long way in offering someone the needed light they may need.

At times, Catholics are a little hesitant about sharing the faith with another person. We don't want to come across as pushy or "judgmental." But it is precisely in sharing the beauty and mystery of the Catholic faith that we follow the command of Jesus and go out and bring others to Him and to His Church. The days of Catholics being somehow timid or even seemingly ashamed of being Catholic are past! For those of us old enough to remember Confirmation in the "old days," we were taught by the sisters that we would now become "Soldiers of Christ." That image and truism always has stayed with me.

St. Paul tells us to proclaim Christ "in season and out of season." On the surface that seems sort of an odd thing to say, doesn't it? He is actually telling us that there is no time in which we are not to proclaim with conviction and compassion, the invitation of Jesus to "Come, follow Me."

As you all go about your lives in the marketplaces of our world, remember, you take Christ with you! Your Catholic faith is a part of you, which all should know and see. Remember, little things mean a lot. You may never know what a word or gesture on your part did for another's journey of faith!

Have a prayer-full week!

Father Michael Litzsch
