“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Last Sunday we listened to the Gospel account of how Jesus was moved with pity for the people who were “like sheep without a shepherd.” In today’s Gospel, the Lord again looks upon the enormous crowd that had followed Him and performs the miracle of the loaves and fishes.

It is important for us to remember that each time Our Lord provides nourishment for the crowds and/or His Apostles, those incidents all lead to the most miraculous feeding that He provided and still does provide ... the Holy Eucharist! Each of those incidents provided Our Lord the opportunity to prepare His followers for His greatest Gift of all: His very Body and Blood.

How truly blessed we are this summer! How so? Well, again in this year of “Cycle B” readings, we hear of the tremendous Gift of the Most Holy Eucharist. I personally look forward to the Year B cycle each time it comes around; it offers me the opportunity to really “zero in” on the “Source and Summit” of our lives as Catholics. Without the Holy Eucharist, we cease to be Catholic ... plain and simple. It is good for us to hear of this most Precious Gift at this time in our nation’s history. My friends, we are in a spiritual battle if we truly live our Catholic faith. When one listens to a person truly “fired up” about being Catholic, it cannot help but to re-ignite our own fire. When one meets a fellow Catholic who has a deep love and respect for the Blessed Sacrament, the Holy Mass, and the priesthood, one cannot help but be changed. When we priests are reminded that we are here to preach the truth of Christ again and again, even when some don’t wish to hear it, or it’s hard to hear, one cannot help but become stronger in his or her Catholic Faith!

We find ourselves facing, if you accept the validity of polling in their totality, when a frightening number of Catholics say they no longer believe in the True, Real Presence of Jesus Christ in His Gift of the Holy Eucharist. How can this be possible? I confess I do not have the answer in its fullness. I can, without hesitation, state that when fellow Catholics have been “fed” half-truths, distortions of sound liturgical and sacramental teachings of the Church, the results are self-evident. They no longer believe, or ever did believe, because they were never taught!

After the Vatican Council in the mid sixties, the almost total emphasis was placed on “community meal” rather than “Eucharistic Sacrifice.” While the communal aspect is vitally important, it can never usurp the truth that the Mass is primarily THE Sacrifice of Jesus Christ to His Heavenly Father. At each celebration of the Mass, His Gift is RE-PRESENTED to His Father on OUR behalf. No amount of “community” will get us to heaven!

There is a myriad of examples one can point to in regard to some people’s lack of awareness or understanding of the Sacred Liturgy. Here is one: the priest stands “in Persona

Christi,” in the Person of Christ, when offering Christ’s Mass (the word “Christmas, by the way!). As such, his primary privilege is to offer sacrifice; hence the name “priest,” not “presider.” A presider is one who oversees meetings and such. A priest, by definition, offers sacrifice. In this capacity, the priest offers the people’s prayers TO God the Father, THROUGH Jesus Christ, IN the power of the Holy Spirit. Thus, he must always remember TO WHOM he is speaking.

“Father, Vatican II said not use Latin anymore.” NO, it specifically called for Latin to “be retained” in the Mass. St. John XXIII made sure that was included in the documents. Every religion has its “sacred language,” a language not used in normal conversation or on the streets. The Jews have Hebrew, for example. Latin is our sacred language; it always will be. Pope John’s vision was that the readings should be proclaimed in the vernacular, or language of the people BUT, especially the Eucharistic Prayer or “Canon,” remain in Latin. I am NOT advocating a return to an “all Latin Mass.” I simply use this as an example of how things became distorted in the past to a point that many simply have never been taught the Faith in its fullness.

“Father, what about Pope Francis’ letter “Traditionis custodes,” or “Guardians of the Tradition?” “Doesn’t he say no more Latin?” Simply put, no. His letter is limiting the usage of the “Extraordinary Form,” or “Tridentine” Rite of the Mass. That second name comes from the Council of Trent ... circa 1545. Pope Benedict had loosened the restrictions placed on the offering of this Form of the Mass. Pope Francis is returning those restrictions. It may still be offered for those who desire it. In my humble opinion, the “Novus Order,” or Rite we most commonly use, IF offered with the reverence, solemnity, use of Latin here and there, is just as beautiful as the “Extraordinary Form.” Pope Francis himself, in his letter, bemoans all the abuses that took place and continue to take place in the celebration of the Mass.

What a Gift! What a Treasure! Remember the words of St. John Vianney: “When you come before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, open your hearts; He will open His!”

God bless one and all and have a good week!

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
