14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!" - Mk 6:2

How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mqpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offertory that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

As we gather on this Independence Day weekend, let us once more thank God for our blessings and the graces we need to work to make our glorious country even more just and free! We have so very much to be thankful for as a people and we have much to pray and work for to insure a deeper respect and justice for all human life! "Pro Deo et Patria"; "For God and Country" should always be our motto. As St. Thomas More said as he faced his beheading: "I am the king's (country's) good servant; but God's first." That is a good motto for all Catholics! We owe allegiance to our great nation BUT, to God first!

Let's take a look at the readings for this weekend's Mass. They offer us an ironic twist on this Independence weekend.

The people of Jesus' "native place" had begun to measure Him based on their own inadequate preconceptions and presuppositions. In other words, even before Jesus spoke or acted, some had already closed their minds and hearts to His word and presence ... not totally unlike our own day, right? Think of those who have closed their hearts and minds to the wisdom of Christ's Church, often before they truly understand it.

Because they were filled with contempt right off the bat, they ruled out even the remote possibility of experiencing the "mighty deeds of the Lord." How much better are those who, like St. Paul, approach the Lord from the perspective of the "thorn" in their flesh, even taking comfort in their weakness. For "power is made perfect in weakness."

This brings me to a point in an article written by Fr. Peter John Cameron, OP. Father wrote: "What God desires is our trust, our dependence, our reliance, our certainty, our surrender. God loves to be acknowledged by nothingness. In the nothingness that we offer to God, the Everything He gives appears ever more glorious. Our greatness and freedom derive from this dependence."

"All of this shows our fundamental human desire to give God something." Pope Benedict XVI said that sacrifice consists in our becoming totally receptive toward God and in letting ourselves be completely taken over by Him.

The point of the bread and wine at each Mass is not for them to remain bread and wine but for them rather to become the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. "We hope that what we offer will be completely taken over by God ... will be filled with His Presence. Our gifts symbolize ourselves."

Thus, we gather on this Independence Day weekend as Americans to celebrate our national independence. But, as Catholics and as Christians, we gather this weekend, indeed at each offering of the Holy Mass, to celebrate our total dependence upon Jesus Christ and His Gift of the Holy Eucharist! Ironic, isn't it?

Let us go forth from this Mass with a renewed vision that true "independence" is only possible within the arms of total dependence on Jesus Christ and His Bride, the Church! For it is "through Him, with Him and in Him" that we live and move and have our being. Now that is cause for rejoicing!

God bless you and may God bless America! AND may America bless God!
