21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God." - Jn 6:67-69

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

Catholic Study for Women

At last a powerful Catholic Study for Women will be offered at our Parish! In the Women of Grace Foundational study, you will embark upon a journey of discovery and transformation as you explore the great call and gift of your femininity. Along the way, you will meet two great women saints, receive wisdom from Holy Mother Church, unpack the life-changing wisdom of Holy Scripture, and discover how the Blessed Virgin Mary is the exemplar of discipleship and the pathway to her Son, Jesus Christ and the heart of the Father. Join us for an informational meeting August 29th after the 10:30 Mass in the new narthex. See you there!

Bulletin Deadline

Please submit bulletin announcements by 10:00 pm on Fridays to awray@mcpdanville.org, also a copy to charlottepell@aol.com and tjmobrien@sbcglobal.net.

“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Are we enjoying these days of August? I, for one, am ready for the beauty and crispness of autumn. Yes, I know what follows. But admit it, don't you mostly enjoy the changing of seasons? How boring it would be for each day to remain the same. I love Florida, the Carolinas, etc. but, I would never want to live there full time. In many ways, nature mirrors our lives. We are born, we flourish in youth, we grow older and yes, one day we will meet the Lord in death. I know many who really do not like autumn; they find it sad and depressing ... knowing the cold and darkness of winter approaches. Me? I look at it like this: try to enjoy each season, both of nature as well as life. When you come right down to it, there's not a darn thing you can do about either! One might as well treasure each day. Someone gave me a plate one time and now it hangs at Mom's house. It says: "Make this day as if it is the best day of your life." Good food for thought, n'est pas?

In both the first reading as well as the Gospel today, we hear of people who recognized God's presence among them. The stark and eternal consequences of their choices must be reflected upon.

Joshua recalls God's protection during the time when the Israelites fled the yoke of their Egyptian masters. Because of this, Joshua swears, "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Alas, others of his company did not make the same choice.

In the wonderful passage from St. John's Gospel, St. Peter recognizes Jesus as "the Holy One of God." Alas, others of his company did not.

Each time we gather to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we proclaim that we, too, recognize the very Presence of Jesus Christ in our lives and in our midst in the Holy Eucharist. This reverential recognition, coupled with our willingness to serve Christ, impels us to extend His Presence into our daily lives. Alas, at times we do not do this.

Any serious study and prayer of the Holy Scriptures includes the awareness that numbers play a very important role. Beginning with the days of creation to the days Noah spent in the ark, to the days the Jews wandered in the desert, the twelve tribes of Israel, the twelve Apostles, the seven Sacraments; all point out the sacred writers' awareness that God uses these to teach truth.

Therefore, one must conclude that it is no mere coincidence for St. John the Apostle's "Eucharistic Chapter," the sixth chapter, to include a rather ominous warning and statement of fact in the sixty-sixth verse: "As a result of this, many of His disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied Him." (JN. 6:66) Does that number sound in any way familiar to you?

It is the same series of numbers St. John would later use in the Book of Revelation to refer to "the Anti-Christ." He is making it quite clear that one cannot claim allegiance to Jesus Christ and at the same time reject His own proclamation of the Holy Eucharist!

It is so important for us to realize that our Lord did not force anyone to accept this supreme teaching, this sublime reality. He allowed those who would not or could not believe, to leave Him. We need to remember the same thing today. No one can be forced to believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. At the same time, we need not apologize for the fact that we do! Nor should we feel constrained to not share this belief with others and ask that they respect our belief and His True Presence in the Tabernacles of our churches.

What a Gift! What a Treasure, is the Most Blessed Sacrament! As St. John Vianney wrote:

“What happiness do we not feel in the Presence of God, when we are at His Feet before the Sacred Tabernacle! Redouble your fervor; you are to adore your God; His Eyes rest upon you!”

May God Bless and keep Us All!

Father Michael Lutich

Knights of Columbus Corner

Our Country is in need your prayers. Please join the Knights in prayer. We pray the Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet daily. You can join us on our Facebook Page as well as the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page.

On Friday evening August 27, 2021, from 6:00 pm to 11:00 pm, the Council will host another young adult's evening in the Church basement. All young adult ages 18 to 35 are welcome. The Council will provide food and drinks for the evening. Please, bring a friend. For more information contact Tom Mills at tmills@ischamp.com or 317-341-3877.

The Council would like to extend a very hearty thank you to all of those that contributed to the Ultrasound Project. All monies collected will be sent to the Indiana State Council for the betterment of Women's Health and Pregnancy Clinics.

The Council is moving forward in obtaining gaming license for possible future bingos, raffles, pull tabs, etc. The Council is considering starting a Bingo night sometime soon once we have obtained the license.

Time to start dusting off your favorite Chili recipe's. Our Second Chili/Gumbo Smackdown is tentative for a January Saturday evening after the 5:00 pm Mass. Date will be set in the very near future. Our defending champion is ready for the competition.

The digital Church sign that is being considered by the Council will be brought up to the Danville City Council for approval.

If anyone has questions concerning the Knights of Columbus or would like to join our Council, please contact Mark Richardt at rowdy251@yahoo.com or call 317-354-5603.
