22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." - Mk 7:14-15

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

It seems that, in the three-year cycle of readings given us by the Church for Sunday Mass, we do not hear much from a powerful source. Today, we do so. St. James offers a reminder: "Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls." He goes on to tell us to be "doers of the word and not hearers only." What does that mean?

Well, it means that we not only talk our Catholic faith, we try our best to live it. It means that "faith without works is dead." (Which, incidentally, is the major reason Martin Luther at first called James: "a bundle of straw" and wanted to drop it from the Canon of Scripture. He later gave the matter more thought and did not do so!) It means that when we come to Mass, we humbly open ourselves to be transformed by God's Word and Sacrament. It means that we attempt to have our attitudes and actions molded to those of Christ and His Church. You know, it's tough to hear. Sometimes it's hard enough even to pray, let alone do so in the mind of Christ. It doesn't mean we don't have faith. It means that at times, it's all a person can do to pray.

By extension, I think St. James would want us to know that we're in this together. Our faith supports and has compassion for one another. Just as others request our prayers, we, too, rely on theirs. That is certainly the message of the Gospel today also. No one does it perfectly. Nonetheless, we strive to do so. Let us pray for one another!

No doubt you all have noticed the Extra-Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, as well as myself, once again wearing masks during the distribution of Holy Communion. This is the latest directive from the Archdiocese. I believe they just desire everyone to feel comfortable and/or "safe." As of this writing, I have heard of no plans to restore the mask requirement for all attending Mass. Who knows? We find ourselves in a time of almost constant change, which is never easy on anyone. I am a simple parish priest; I follow the orders of my Archbishop. I would not want to be in his shoes.

We find ourselves at the end of August ... already! The old saying is true: where does the time go? Some have asked about Oktoberfest. Well, the former chair of the event did not desire to continue, and no one stepped forward to take her place. Ergo, no Oktoberfest again this year. It's a shame; everyone seemed to really like the event. If someone steps up for September of 2022, it will return!

Have a safe and prayerful week, everyone. Gott bless!
