24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." - Mk 8:34-35

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The first line of today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah seems to pick up the themes from last week's readings, doesn't it? Isaiah tells us that "the Lord God opens my ear that I may hear."

When we come to Mass, we try our best to open our ears to His word. We do so in order to fashion an answer to the question posed by Jesus to His Apostles: "Who do people say that I am?" I think that each one of us has experienced the presence of Jesus in our lives in some manner. At times it can feel that we have not when we are in the depths of a suffering or cross.

St. Peter already believed in Christ, or he would not have been able to make his profession of faith: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." But he was not yet ready to accept the whole truth about Christ. Peter was thinking of the Messiah in human terms: he saw Jesus as the one Who would restore freedom to Israel. But the full truth about Jesus soon became evident at the Passion and Crucifixion. Only then did St. Peter fully believe: Jesus was the crucified and risen Christ!

Where this took place is highly significant as well. On pilgrimage to the Holy Land, I specifically asked that our group travel to Caesarea Philippi. Why? Because St. Peter's profession took place at that place. There was a long-standing tradition of the cliff there being filled with niches containing pagan idols. It was at this place that Jesus chose to reveal His true identity as the Messiah, the Son of God. It was also thus the sight of the beginning of the primacy of St. Peter and his successors as the leaders of the Church ... the succession of Popes down to Pope Francis today! It is an awesome place when one realizes what took place there!

Perhaps today's question posed by our Lord is an opportunity to invite Him into our hearts in a renewed way. It can be scary though, right? Let's face it, by inviting Jesus in, we are in effect, surrendering control and self-will to Jesus. That's easy to say that we are able to do so but look deep into your heart. Is it? But it's the real path to peace and joy. Let us pray for one another!

As a new school year has begun, it's a great time to recognize and thank all those men and women who so very generously volunteer their time and talent in the Catholic religious education of our youth and adults. Together with dedicated parents, the awesome task of imparting the great treasure of our faith is entrusted. We pledge to them our prayers and support! THANK-YOU for your spirit of stewardship of your time and talent!

Some have asked about the desire to obtain a beautiful statue of St. Michael. Well, some have donated to the cause, so we are on our way. I found one in Pennsylvania at a Catholic business that collects and sells Catholic items from closed churches, convents, etc. If you would like to help, just ask myself or Anna! In these days and times, we need St. Michael's protection more than ever! Along this line, if anyone with a truck ever is headed to Steubenville, OH, let me know. The statue is at a warehouse in MacDonald, PA, right over the border from Steubenville and West Virginia!

Are you interested in being trained as an Extra-ordinary Minister of Holy Communion to someone in a nursing facility? We are in need of such good folks. On a normal basis, it is these dedicated volunteers who take up this ministry. Of course, I, and other priests are available for the Sacrament of the Sick when needed. If interested, please call the office or Mary O'Brien! Mary coordinates this ministry.

May the Lord Bless and Keep You All This Week!

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend

Are you living a busy life and don't really have time to talk to your spouse? We have a gift to share with you; it's called a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. The Weekend will give you the opportunity to examine your lives together. A time to share your feelings, hopes, joys and frustrations without the interruption of family commitments, TV, internet and phone calls, rather it is a time to get to know your spouse all over again and rediscover your deep love for each other. We are planning an in-person Marriage Encounter Weekend at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House, Indianapolis, from 5-7 November 2021. Visit www.wwme.org for further information.

Indiana Women's Conference

The Indiana Women's Conference is on September 25, 2021. If enough people are interested in going, we may be able to carpool. Call the office if you are interested in carpooling.

Through our monthly donations and continual supply drives, Mary Queen of Peace has helped make an impact on the Hendricks County community! Thank you for your continued support!

Family Promise has immediate need for the following items:

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
