25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me.” - Mk 9:37a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God’s presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

Christmas Bazaar

In anticipation of having the annual Christmas Bazaar this year the Women's Club is accepting applications for vendors. It will be held November 6th. If you know someone who is crafty and or has unique items or a small business, please direct them to Jan Adams 317-508-4458 or email at jan_e_adams49@icloud.com. Ave Maria!

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Seth Lewis and Linda Plunkett, and pray for the care and consolation of their families. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's readings are among the most challenging for people who live in a world and culture such as ours. In the Gospel the disciples are arguing with one another over which of them is the greatest; it shows just how human the Twelve were.

The Letter of St. James tells us that "where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. That's pretty strong language.

In a culture that seems to value being "number one," these words cut to the heart. Jesus, in choosing to place a small child in the midst of His bickering disciples, is perhaps telling us that living a more simple life of trust in Him, is what is of true, lasting value.

These readings today are all about becoming good stewards of the gifts God so freely bestows on us. Each is different; each is valued. Maybe we could pray this coming week that we will be given the strength to embrace a life of grateful stewardship of our blessings.

One manner in which to show gratitude is how we treat our neighbor and what we can do to further life. Never be embarrassed to share the treasure that is our Catholic Faith! While called to strengthen life in this world, our most important call is to impart the knowledge of eternal life through Jesus Christ and His Church! We Catholics are far too timid in this endeavor. I believe we feel that we will come across as pushy or arrogant or some other such negative when we invite and share our Catholic Faith with others. Far from it; it is the most important gift we can share with others! I think I mentioned a couple weeks ago that the overwhelming reason many converts to the Faith offer for exploring the Catholic Faith, is the simple example and invitation of a Catholic friend. That's very powerful, my friends. It seems that it is not fancy programs or elaborate strategies but a simple, authentic witness and living of one's Catholic beliefs. To discover truth and its eternal value does not depend upon merely earthly means. Most importantly, it depends upon the grace of God. Let us truly be such authentic witnesses!

God bless and keep you all!

Father Michael Lutich

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Knights in praying the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We pray both on a daily basis. You can join us on our Facebook Page as well as the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page. Our country is in need of all our prayers.

On Friday September 24, 2021, the Knights will be hosting another Young Adults evening in the Church basement. Festivities start at 6:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. All young adults ages 18 to 35 are invited. The Council will provide food and drinks for the evening. Please bring a friend for an evening of food, games, and socializing. For more information contact Tom Mills at tmills@ischamp.com or 317-341-3877.

The Council is now applying for a gaming license. We need to go through several hurdles with State Gaming Board. This will allow the Council to have bingo's, pull tabs, raffles, etc. in the near future.

Knock the dust off your favorite chili/ gumbo recipes. The second Chili/ Gumbo Smackdown is scheduled for Saturday, February 5, 2021, after the 5:00 Mass. The defending champion is ready for all in the competition. More details forthcoming.

The Council will be hosting a fish fry with the youth group in November. Date to be set next month. Funds will be shared with the Youth Group and our monies collected that evening will go toward the Ultrasound Project. Ultrasound equipment funds will be sent to the Indiana Knights of Columbus Council for disbursement in helping purchase the badly needed equipment for Women's Clinics and Pregnancy Centers in the State.

If anyone has an interest in joining the Council or has questions regarding the Knights of Columbus or our activities, please contact Mark Richardt at 317-354-5603 or at rowdy251@yahoo.com.

Women of Grace Foundational Study

A women's faith study will be starting this fall at Mary Queen of Peace. It is the Women of Grace Foundational study. This is a study that will reinforce your Catholic faith and explore the special call and gift of Women. It will start Monday, September 27th at 7 p.m. - 9 p.m. and meet 17-18 weeks, at church, which takes us to right before Lent in February.

You will need to purchase the book Full of Grace Women and the Abundant life by Johnnette S. Benkovic and the workbook by the same name. They are available on the Wom-enofgrace.com website and copies may be available on Amazon as well.

If you have any questions or are having trouble finding the materials, please call Lisa Martin at 317-994-6208.

Also, if you are sure you will be taking the study with us, please let Lisa Martin know either by calling or emailing by Sept. 26th, at scootercap01@juno.com so we may know how many to expect. Thank you! Ave Maria!
