28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

A visit from Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary next weekend

At all Masses next weekend, Oct 16/17, we welcome Reverend Daniel Bedel, Spiritual Director at Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary, located here in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Fr. Dan will share about the seminary and their work in the spiritual formation of seminarians, preparing them for a priestly vocation. Fr. Dan will also take up a collection in support of the seminary.

Bereavement Ministry

If you have lost a loved one recently or know of a parishioner who has, please contact Helen Disney so that we can include the family in our ministry. 317-745-4867 or jimandhelendisney@gmail.com.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

ACHTUNG! The second Fish Fry will be this coming Friday, October 15th, from 4:00 to 7:00 pm! Come, support the parish, have a good time. Again, this will be a drive through dinner!!

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives quite a challenge; not only for the "rich young man" but for each of us. He insists, not suggests, that we give all we have to the poor and follow Him. I mean, come on; You can't be serious, Lord!

This may seem impossible and too much to ask, especially when we consider our own true needs in this world. Yet, our Lord is telling us to focus on the needs of others. We are called to "love our neighbor as ourselves," which includes making sacrifices for others.

Of course, our Lord teaches by example, He made the greatest sacrifice ... His life ... for the life of the world; for our life. That's giving all!

Our Lord is not telling us that possessing things is evil, wrong, or unjust. Over the years, His words have been twisted by some resulting in many feeling guilty or ashamed of owning things. As a matter of fact, it was an early heresy that said that it was sinful to own anything! So, Jesus is not telling us to have a gigantic yard sale and become homeless. He is telling us that no-thing should ever take the place He occupies, or should occupy, in our hearts and lives. This is true wisdom, as spoken of in our first reading.

It can be said that knowledge is of man; wisdom is of God. There is a huge difference!

This coming week, I will welcome my good priest friend, Fr. Jim Kossel for a short visit. It is always a joy to have him here. He has never been up to the little German-American town of Frankenmuth in Michigan that Mom and my aunt, Sister Dorothy, loved to visit. Ergo, I am taking him up there for a couple days. You go there to basically eat fried chicken, German food, stroll the shops and rest ... does it get any better than that? For next weekend, my good friend, Fr. Danny Bedel, whom I vested at his ordination, will be at our parish to speak about the wonderful ministry of our Bishop Brute' Seminary located near Marian University. It's interesting that Fr. Danny was among the first class to graduate from Brute' before moving along to St. Meinrad for theology. Now he is on staff as Spiritual Director. He has come full circle as we say. You will enjoy his visit for sure.

Everyone have a prayer-full week and enjoy this beautiful season of Autumn!

May the good God bless and keep you all!

Father Michael Antkowiak

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Knights in praying the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We pray both on a daily basis. You can join us on our Facebook Page as well as the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page. Our country is in need of all our prayers.

The Council is now applying for a gaming license. We need to go through several hurdles with State Gaming Board. This will allow the Council to have bingo's, pull tabs, raffles, etc. in the near future.

Knock the dust off your favorite chili/gumbo recipes. The second Chili/Gumbo Smackdown is scheduled for Saturday, February 5, 2021, after the 5:00 Mass. The defending champion is ready for all in the competition. More details forthcoming.

The Council will be hosting a fish fry with the youth group in November. Date to be set next month. Funds will be shared with the Youth Group and our monies collected that evening will go toward the Ultrasound Project. Ultrasound equipment funds will be sent to the Indiana Knights of Columbus Council for disbursement in helping purchase the badly needed equipment for Women's Clinics and Pregnancy Centers in the State.

These dinners will be drive through only!

If anyone has an interest in joining the Council or has questions regarding the Knights of Columbus or our activities, please contact Mark Richardt at 317-354-5603 or at rowdy251@yahoo.com.

40 Days for Life

Most people are unaware that 40 Days for Life is the largest pro-life event on the planet. For the fall campaign 25 countries and 375 cities will give public witness outside abortion clinics, but the most important statistic is that over 13,000 babies have been saved over the years simply by people giving their prayerful witness. And we can guarantee that more babies will be saved at the Georgetown abortion clinic this October. It happens every campaign. 3 or 4 or 5 babies are saved as their mothers see our witness and turn back from their scheduled abortion. Dates this year are September 22 - October 31. More info at info@40daysforlife.com or contact Lisa Martin at 317-994-6208 or scootercap01@juno.com.

Thank you all so very much for the donations from our Wish List! They always come at just the right time and keep us going!

Family Promise has immediate need for the following items:

- Blue Speedway gas cards - URGENT NEED
- Cribs/Toddler beds
- Brooms/mops (gently used is fine)

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
