"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, we hear the series of events that will signal the second coming of Christ. "Heaven and earth will pass away," Jesus tells us, "but my words will not pass away."

Jesus is reassuring us that His return will not signal a final end to life. The Lord promises us a life that will endure after this earth passes away. Today's readings are fitting as we experience the ending of another liturgical year and stand on the threshold of another, which will begin with the First Sunday of Advent.

Our Lord's words do, however, give us warning and significant pause for prayer. How will we each appear before Him at His return? What will the "scales" look like regarding our lives? No one is able to answer for our own personal lives and the decisions, for good or bad, which we have made. That will be our sole responsibility.

Rather than make us paranoid or scared stiff, this fact of our religious lives, should make us grateful for the Lord's blessings and our faith! It should make us more cognizant of our actions, words, and attitudes in our daily lives! It should make us take our Catholic Faith much more serious than we normally do, its practice, its fervor, and its commitment! Apathy and indifference are two of the deadliest sins we each will no doubt present before the throne of God. Today's Gospel gives us an opportunity to prayerfully reflect and re-prioritize if need be ... thanks be to God!

Perhaps by this time many of you have already received your UCA treasure commitment card. Our 2021 UCA Goal stays the same as last year. In today's bulletin you will find our time and talent campaign form. I thank you for turning in your pledge cards and the time & talent for both our parish and our Archdiocese. I thank ALL who have thus far made a pledge AND thank those who also have made inquiry and commitment to share their time and talent with our parish as well! If you have not made your pledge or turned in your card, PLEASE do so within the next couple of weeks!

Speaking of Time, Talent and Treasure, our Parish Life Commission (social activities) needs to be renewed and reformed. If you are interested in joining the group, please call Anna in the office. A date and time will be set up for an organizational meeting. The main areas of activity for the group are Oktoberfest, Easter egg hunt and Christmas party. It is the desire that if enough folks come forward, that everyone on the commission will not be involved in all the activities. In other words, the events will be divided up. Hope to hear from you!

My personal thanks to all for your kind gifts of cards, words and remembrances shown for my birthday this past Veterans' Day! What a great day to celebrate a birthday ... I never had to go to school that day! Of course, the Veterans take the first place of honor for us all!

May the good God continue to bless us!

Father Michael Lutich
