30th SUNDAY in ordinary time

Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:52

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

Thank you

On behalf of Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary, I wish to thank the parishioners of Mary Queen of Peace Church for your hospitality in welcoming me at your Masses last weekend. It was a pleasure to celebrate Mass with your community and speak of our work helping young men discern a vocation to the priesthood. Your support and prayers are vital to the future of vocations in our Archdiocese. To learn more about Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary, please visit: www.bishopsimonbrute.org or follow us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/BruteSeminary. See the seminary for yourself at: <https://bit.ly/2ujy931>.

May God bless you,
Fr. Dan Bedel

and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."*

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today we hear another story of the power of faith. A blind man, Bartimaeus, sought pity from the Lord and asked for healing. He believed that the Son of David could grant what he asked. Would that we had such faith!

At the conclusion of the Gospel, Jesus states that it was Bartimaeus' faith that saved him. Bartimaeus is an inspiration to us all, isn't he? He reminds us to turn to Jesus with faith, seeking His protection and healing. In order to do so, we need to remain vigilant as we seek to discover more and more the Lord's actions in our individual lives.

I am reminded by Bartimaeus of the pilgrimage I took to Lourdes, France. It truly is an inspiring place. To take part in the evening candle light procession with the pilgrims from all across the world is awesome. The dip in the waters is a spiritual experience as well ... and cold! They do NOT heat the miraculous waters! I am reminded of Lourdes because the vast majority of healings that take place there are of the spiritual sort; not the physical. I think too often we think of "healing" in only the physical sense. The truth is, most of us need spiritual healing more than physical. Bartimaeus serves to remind us of this spiritual hunger and thirst. This, too, requires much faith and persistence. And we need to pray for one another as well! This is an example of Christian service as well.

I was recently talking with one of our younger priests in the Archdiocese. He has not been ordained all that many years and is now in his first pastorate. Like the majority of our priests being ordained today, he is authentic and genuine with a love for people, the Church and the Holy Mass. He was troubled by what he was experiencing in the parish. Among these: a level of apathy and indifference. Folks may go to Mass but that's about it; no deeper level of involvement in the parish. "Let someone else do it." Many days, the number at Mass is only a handful; sometimes less than that. (Come to find out, before his assignment, there was almost no encouragement for folks to attend a daily Mass.) He has done an admirable job of teaching his parish about the authentic Liturgy called for by Vatican II, often meeting with indifference. The number of folks going to confession is abysmal. It is not uncommon at all to hear that they only go during Advent or Lent. Many think nothing of deliberately missing Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and yet receiving Holy Communion afterwards. It is as if they have no concept of what the Mass is truly about. I told him, that's not surprising considering the sometimes very poor teaching that many received in the 70's up through the mid 90's. I know that; I lived it; I experienced it.

I did my best to encourage my younger brother priest. I told him of how much better things are compared to when I was ordained in 1985! Keep teaching, keep teaching and praying. It is hard at times, but one cannot give up! Pray for all your priests ... me too!

This is the final weekend to turn in the All Souls' Day envelopes for inscription in our Book of Remembrance! Because it falls on a Monday this year, All Saints Day is NOT an Obligation. However, it is still a very important Solemnity! I will offer Mass on Monday, November 1st at NOON! Let us honor the Saints! Mass for ALL SOULS' DAY WILL BE TUESDAY, AT THE USUAL 5:30 PM.

Have a great week, everyone. Enjoy our beautiful fall colors! ORA PRO NOBIS!

Father Michael Suteda

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Knights in praying the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We pray both on a daily basis. You can join us on our Facebook Page as well as the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page. Our country is in need of all our prayers.

The Council is now applying for a gaming license. We need to go through several hurdles with State Gaming Board. This will allow the Council to have bingo's, pull tabs, raffles, etc. in the near future.

Knock the dust off your favorite chili/gumbo recipes. The second Chili/Gumbo Smackdown is scheduled for Saturday, February 5, 2021, after the 5:00 Mass. The defending champion is ready for all in the competition. More details forthcoming.

If anyone has an interest in joining the Council or has questions regarding the Knights of Columbus or our activities, please contact Mark Richardt at 317-354-5603 or at rowdy251@yahoo.com.

40 Days for Life

Most people are unaware that 40 Days for Life is the largest pro-life event on the planet. For the fall campaign 25 countries and 375 cities will give public witness outside abortion clinics, but the most important statistic is that over 13,000 babies have been saved over the years simply by people giving their prayerful witness. And we can guarantee that more babies will be saved at the Georgetown abortion clinic this October. It happens every campaign. 3 or 4 or 5 babies are saved as their mothers see our witness and turn back from their scheduled abortion. Dates this year are September 22 - October 31.
