"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

For the last several weeks we have listened to readings that challenged us to use God's gifts wisely and generously. We have been called to place the needs of our neighbor before those of our own desires. Granted, not an easy thing to do.

This week, all of those commands by our Lord are captured within the summation of the commandments offered by Jesus in the Gospel, which is an echo of the first reading. Jesus tells us the greatest commandment is that we love the Lord our God with everything in our being; with everything we have. That means we place ourselves and our treasures at His disposal.

The second commandment is that we love our neighbor as we love our selves. These are the core commandments from which all others flow. Honestly, we need look no further than our own hearts to see that these two great commandments are often ignored, do we?

A beautiful image is that of the crucifix. It takes two arms to make the cross on which our Lord was glorified. The vertical beam is our love of God. The horizontal beam is our love of neighbor. It's not either/or; it's both/and.

As we begin on Montag, this month of remembrance, these darkening days of November, remember your beloved gone before you in special times of prayer. Make an effort to attend a Daily Mass for them. Say a rosary for them. Make a visit to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament for them. Ask them to pray for you. May their souls rest in peace! Remember, although the Obligation is non-binding when the Solemnity of ALL SAINTS falls on a Monday, I will be offering Mass on Monday at NOON. On Tuesday, November 2nd, we observe the Feast of ALL SOULS. The Holy Mass will be offered at the usual time of 5:30 pm. These Masses are a beautiful example of the Church Triumphant in Heaven, the Church Suffering in Purgatory and the Church Militant here on earth. The beautiful Communion of the Saints join together in worship of the Holy Trinity! Each praying for one another ... most certainly a note of consolation!

God bless you all!

Father Michael Sutow

40 Days for Life

Most people are unaware that 40 Days for Life is the largest pro-life event on the planet. For the fall campaign 25 countries and 375 cities will give public witness outside abortion clinics, but the most important statistic is that over 13,000 babies have been saved over the years simply by people giving their prayerful witness. And we can guarantee that more babies will be saved at the Georgetown abortion clinic this October. It happens every campaign. 3 or 4 or 5 babies are saved as their mothers see our witness and turn back from their scheduled abortion. Dates this year are September 22 - October 31. More info at info@40daysforlife.com or contact Lisa Martin at 317-994-6208 or scootercap01@juno.com.
