"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Ah, here we are firmly in the midst of January. Isn't it great? I suppose the best answer is: "It's pretty typical." One thing I have noticed is the amount of increasing light each day is bringing! You know I love snow and cold doesn't bother me, but I do not like the darkness; making the days and nights seem so long. Mom used to be ready for bed by 8:30, thinking it must be 10 pm already! Oh, the glory of Gott. In my opinion, I still enjoy the changing of the seasons rather than the same thing all year round. It reminds me of life, cyclical.

"To each individual," writes St. Paul, "the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." We might think that being given the Spirit means having all the answers, or for that matter, having no questions!

Holy Scripture provides little support for such supposition. All that the Holy Spirit gives us ... and blessed are we if we can handle so much ... is an awareness of, an openness to, Christ's Presence and activity in our lives.

Let's consider our Blessed Mother at Cana. She simply tells her Son what she sees: "They have no wine." Are you thinking, "just like a mother?" Her implied petition is not given an immediate reply. Mary does not ask again or assume Jesus isn't interested. Mary simply accepts that Her Son will answer her prayer/petition as is best for all.

Next comes one of the most powerful statements of New Testament faith and the faith of the Church: "Do whatever He tells you." In that simple and deeply faithful directive, Our Lady undoes terrible words screamed at God by Lucifer: "I will not serve!"

Whatever Jesus decides will be for the best. He doesn't need a script or teleprompter. Better we turn to Him trustingly, turn over the things we cannot handle alone. In the Holy Spirit, we invoke God's power, not for our own good or selfish desires, but for the good of salvation. We pray always, "Thy will be done." Can we honestly utter that statement of faith? To help us, we have Our Lady and her motherly advice: "Do whatever He tells you."

Mothers do know best you know!

May God bless you and keep you always! May Jesus in the Holy Eucharist lead and guide you!

Father Michael Lutsch
