"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today, are you somehow "in the dark?" Do you seek a closer relationship with Christ Jesus and His Church, with others? In the first reading, Isaiah says, "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." Not only was he referring to the Jewish people, but he also was predicting the coming of the Christ, Who rescues us from our sins!

When Jesus brings eternal life and truth to a soul, joy follows. St. Paul reveals today that walking in the light means being in Christ. We find our harmony and unity in the first words of Jesus. His first words of public ministry were: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." The Apostles left their nets and followed when Jesus called to them. Perhaps we could ask ourselves today, "What tangled nets do I need to leave behind to follow Christ Jesus in trust and unity?"

Each one of us, when we were baptized, was baptized into Christ Jesus and His Holy Bride, the Church. In the Rite of Baptism, the priest or deacon, immediately following the baptism proclaims, "You have put on Christ."

At that moment all concerned know that we became Christ for others. Imagine if you will, unrolling the scroll as Jesus did in today's Gospel and proclaiming those words: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." That is precisely what each one of us who has been baptized into Christ and His Church is called to do.

Pray during this upcoming week for the grace to do just as Christ calls us to do. In what ways can you personally respond to His call to bring His "glad tidings" to others? How can you share your Catholic faith with others by sharing with them the graces you have received through His Church, Her sacraments, Her liturgy? Invite others into the Mystical Body of Christ, His Church! Can you think of any thing more meaningful to share?

PS: Just think, we have 'made it' through the first third of winter! Hang in there!

May God bless us and keep us always!

Father Michael Sutuch

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,

O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
