1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Most of us would regard good memory as a blessing. Good what? Oh, yeah, good memory! Yet a great Doctor of the Church, St. John of the Cross, warned that spiritual growth requires memory to be brought under strict control. Why?

For St. John of the Cross, an undisciplined memory churns up past sin, recalling the momentary enjoyment/pleasure ... and the lasting regret. So it was with the prophet Isaiah and St. Peter. Just when growth in the spiritual way beckons, sin rises from the dust of memory, points an accusing finger, and asks, "Are you sure you desire to grow closer to God, with me in your baggage?"

When are we most likely to understand the full horror of our sins than when we truly appreciate the compassion and mercy of God? We overcome those sad realities when we have offended God through the virtue of hope, telling us to look not back, but forward to the life in and of Christ.

We should not forget our sinful past, but our past must be just that: past. Remembering what Jesus in effect told St. Peter: "Fear not the past. I have something better for you." Step out into the deep and trust in Christ. Now, that is a good memory to hold on to!

This year is somewhat unique in that we are in the midst of a rather elongated or extended period of "Ordinary Time." Most years, Ash Wednesday, the start of Lent, appears on the horizon much sooner than this year ... March 2nd. As a matter of fact, one month from today will be the First Sunday of Lent. I always like it when Lent comes early; it tells me that Easter and Spring are also drawing closer!

On behalf of the parish, I wish to offer a BIG Danke Schoen to all the guys who wish to remain anonymous who worked SO hard in remodeling the basement of the kirche! We have much more room now for seating, more storage, nicely painted walls, waxed floor, and new ceiling tiles are coming. The current ones are nearly forty years old and look it. These guys have saved the parish much monies by their generous volunteering of their time and talent! Without such volunteers, so much in a parish would not be able to be afforded or accomplished. Again, guys, thanks so much!

Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Michael Litzsch

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
