How Can I Continue to Contribute My Regular Offering to the Parish?

There have been questions about how parishioners can continue their contributions to the parish during this very difficult time. There are two methods. The first method is to use the online giving feature on the website: www.mcpdanville.org (on the opening page there is an icon in green on the right). The other method is to mail your contributions to 1005 West Main St., Danville, IN 46122.

We are all facing financial uncertainties. Any offering that you can give will be greatly appreciated. If you have any difficulty with online giving please email Anna Wray and we will assist you.

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Dan Brennan, Sarah Cooney, Maureen Crowder, Patty Edwards, Bill Fattic, Dick Griffith, Eric Hansen, Laurel & Bob Kult, Kelsea Kushner, Debbie Little, Anthony Martinez, Michael Gerard Moyer, Goldie Parsons, Joe Saddler, Mike & Jeff Saylor, Helen Schweizer, David & Dee Sheets, Mary Shelton, Lois Staresina, Debbie Such, and Mary Williams.

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

A HAPPY AND GLORIOUS EASTER TO YOU ALL!! May the Spirit of the Risen Christ shine upon you on this most joyous day! To those visiting St. Mary, a hearty welcome!

Today hundreds of millions around the world gather to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. From St. Peter's in the Vatican to Mary, Queen of Peace in Danville, Indiana; throughout the world, the defining event for the Church draws people from every race and culture to praise God for the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection.

Each year, today's celebration of Easter allows the believer to ask in his or her heart: what difference does the resurrection of Jesus make in my daily life? In the past year, since we last gathered to celebrate this holy day, have there been moments in my life in which the risen Christ truly shone forth? Have I lived my life in the light and joy of Easter faith or remained sealed in the tomb of sin, sarcasm, and fear?

The Beloved Disciple, St. John, goes to great lengths in narrating the event of the Resurrection of Jesus. He wants us to know that, with his own eyes, he saw the burial cloths, folded neatly in the tomb. To arrange the cloths neatly, as they were found, suggests something quite unique. So, his account is precious evidence of a truly extraordinary event. The Beloved Disciple allows us to share in his own experience, to share in the moment when everything began to fit together, when he began to understand fully that death is not the end; Christ triumphs!

Today is the day of days to allow the joy of Easter to ring through our lives! Today is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it! Alleluia!

Today, our parish congratulates our chosen Elect who entered into full communion with the Catholic Church: Braden Cooler, Robert Lilly, and Johazelis Velez. Let us continue to pray for them as they begin their life within the Catholic Faith!

I would like to personally thank ALL those who helped in any way with the planning, decorating, and supporting connected with Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum. It takes much work to decorate, practice and prepare for these most holy days. Your dedication, often unknown, is invaluable! Thanks to Ed and all the vocalists and musicians for their hard work and prayer in adding to our Liturgies!

Again, I wish one and all a very joyous Easter Season! God bless you all!

we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and
