"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, I welcome my very good friend, Fr. Jim Koressel, back to St. Mary's. He always enjoys his time with us here. How can he not? We are a great parish! I mentioned before that the two of us are heading out for a trip ... first one since pre-Covid back in early February of 2020. It's safe to say, we both are looking forward to it!

As the Easter continues to unfold, even with the "Alleluias," life can be tough. We live in an imperfect world, one marked by terrorism, war as well as the "ordinary" crosses that each individual may carry.

To this imperfect world and life of testing, the Lord Jesus proclaims in today's Gospel: "I give you a new commandment: love one another." We can look with sadness upon the world today; a sadness born from the knowledge that people simply do not love one another.

As followers of Jesus Christ, we must not allow this sadness turn into despair, for if this holy Eastertide gives us anything, it gives us hope for our world and our lives as well. The commandment of Jesus begins in our own heart. It is within our heart that commitment and growth in our Lord Jesus comes about. However, we must realistically admit that this can sometimes feel overwhelming, don't we?

I was reading a reflection on this weekend's Liturgy of the Word, and it ended with this: Name a time when you found it difficult to love someone. How did you overcome this? A good thought for us all.

Have a blessed week, everyone!

Father Michael Lutsch

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
