"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today our Lord Jesus tells us that the Holy Spirit will remind us of everything that He taught; more on that a bit later. As the holy Feast of Pentecost draws near, let us pray for an ever-stronger outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our hearts and souls. We need the Holy Spirit to keep reminding us (there's that word again) of all that Jesus did and taught.

Just think of last weekend's commandment from our Lord to "love one another" and then look around at the people in your life ... how you doing? This is where the "reminding" comes in.

How did our Lord intend and establish that we are "reminded" of all that He taught us? Did He just leave this up to individual whim and belief because we think the Holy Spirit told us something? Did He simply ascend into heaven; leaving us to figure out for ourselves what He taught? I don't think so!

We have been gifted with the authority and wisdom of the Magisterium, the official teaching authority of the Church, to lead, guide and comfort us unto eternal life. Jesus never would leave His Bride alone to blunder through the centuries trying to find Her way. He gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to His Bride! And He gave St. Peter and his successors, with the bishops in union with him, the Holy Spirit to lead and guide them, as they in turn lead and guide us. Everyone, every Catholic, is both guided by, and answerable to, the Holy Spirit led Magisterial teaching of the Church. What a gift and what a blessing! Praised be Jesus Christ!

"The glory that is May." I know I am not making up that old saying! It is certainly true, however. Look about us and see the splendor of God's work. We do not worship nature; we are not pantheistic. We don't bow down and pray to trees and bushes. We DO bow down before the Presence of Christ Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament! You know I love this saying of St. John Vianney: pointing to the tabernacle in the little church in Ars, France, with tears in his eyes, he would proclaim: "He is there!" Talk about faith in action. May we imitate him always!

May the good God bless and keep us all!
