1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Ascension of Jesus. We hear the somewhat familiar "Jesus said to His disciples" in today's Mass. Perhaps it is too often we listen to the words as if they were a bit of historical writing and not much more.

We might instead perk up our own ears when we hear these words. Instead of hearing "Jesus said to His disciples", why not hear "Jesus says TO ME, right here and right now?"

That would be very fitting at this celebration of the Ascension. For His words to His disciples and to us, today call for a renewed dedication to sharing the truth and life that come to us from Jesus through His Bride, the Church. The world is hungry for this life and truth. It is our privilege to share this! In my humble opinion, we Catholics have been way too timid in bearing witness to our Lord and our Faith. Far be it that we be "labeled" as intolerant or bigoted for merely standing up for our Catholic values and teachings. It seems that everyone can profess and believe whatever they desire ... except us! What results is that many Catholics simply do not say anything; do not stand up for our Church or our Faith in Jesus Christ. Don't you think it's time for this to change? Who cares what the world says of us? Isn't it more important to stand with Christ than to be "correct or popular?"

Next weekend, our annual celebration of Easter concludes with the Solemnity of Pentecost. Jesus promised His infant Church that He would send an Advocate, One Who would remain with the Church for all ages to come.

The Holy Spirit comes that we might have life. Life in the Holy Spirit is a life that is dedicated to continuing the life and work of Christ Jesus on this earth. As the fifty-day celebration of Easter draws to a close next weekend, let us pray that the same Holy Spirit given the first Apostles at Pentecost, given us through the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, in fact through all seven Sacraments, will strengthen us in our own personal efforts to live a life of service and loyalty to Christ and His Church!

Next weekend of Pentecost is "extra special" for our Archdiocese. On the 4th, we have two men being ordained to the sacred priesthood! Soon to be Fr. Matthew Perronie from St. Malachy and Fr. Michael Clawson, from my home parish of Annunciation, will become our newest priests!

What a glorious day for the Archdiocese! This week is special for me personally. This week, I celebrate my 37th anniversary of ordination! Old age is creeping in. Let us continue always to pray for a generous increase in vocations to the priesthood and our seminarians!

We continue to pray for one another!
