"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

First and foremost, a very HAPPY AND BLESSED MOTHERS' DAY TO ALL OF OUR MOMS!! Whether we are blessed to still have them with us, or they have gone before us in faith, we remember and give thanks for them in our lives. I know from personal experience, once we say farewell when our Mom leaves us on this earth, life changes. For single folks, for priests, when Mom has passed, in many ways "home" becomes a fond memory. This literally happens when our Mom happens to have still been living in the family home-place. That is forever changed. That's one reason it is so important to value and treasure little things that she had around the house; it helps us keep her memory alive within us. May the good God bless and keep them all!

"My sheep hear My voice; I know them, and they follow Me." Very appealing and comforting. isn't it? Or is it? The words of Jesus offer us a unique challenge.

We all recognize certain TV shows or movies from their theme music. Who among us of the middle-aged variety, doesn't remember the music of "I Love Lucy" or "Hogan's Heroes"? How about theme music from "Jaws" or "Star Wars"? The same holds true for the younger folks among us; every generation or age group can relate.

We know the familiar melodies of favorite songs we hear on the radio as well. How many of you remember the theme of your junior or senior prom? (My senior prom was "Precious and Few," anyone remember that one?) When you were dating someone special, you no doubt had "your" song, right?

All of this is important to call to mind when we reflect on today's Gospel. Given the cacophony of music, sound, and voices in our lives, just how easy is it for us to listen to sound of our Good Shepherd? I submit to you that it is difficult. But that's the message of this weekend's liturgies; listening AND acting upon the call of Jesus Christ! We hear of those in the Book of Revelation who are singing the praises of the Lamb, those are the ones that have listened with all their hearts and souls to voice of Jesus and are with Him eternally. That's our call and that is our privilege. What we have heard from Him; we must share. We pray for one another that it may always be so!

Next weekend, my very good friend, Fr. Jim Koresel, will be visiting. He MAY deign to preach the Masses. Now don't go getting all excited, I said he MAY do the preaching! He's a good homilist and y'all need to hear someone different once in awhile. He will be here because that next week, the two of us will head out for a vacation ... first one since February of 2020! I know I leave the parish in good hands. The weekend we will be away, a Cross International Priest will be with you. They have visited many times. They always have a good message. I believe the priest coming this year has been here before, so he knows the lay of the land.

The good Gott im Himmel bless and keep you all!

Father Michael Lutz
