1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend as we gather for the offering of Holy Mass, we as a nation, are observing the annual celebration of our Independence. A HAPPY AND GLORIOUS FOURTH OF JULY TO ONE AND ALL!! It's a time for hot dogs, apple pie, beer, brats, fireworks, and get-togethers. It's also time for us to reflect upon our tremendous blessings and freedom we as a nation have been given to enjoy and cherish.

Even with the truly difficult issues our nation faces, ours truly is a blessed land. Filled with a bounty of natural resources, our greatest resource is the American people! Drawn together by a mutual desire to be free and desiring this freedom for their children, our ancestors, both civil and religious, laid the strong foundation on which we, their sons and daughters, now live.

With great blessing comes great responsibility. All too often it is easy to sit back and simply take what America (or even more importantly, the Lord!) has to offer without much thought given to how these blessings are used and shared.

As I like to always mention, our true freedom was won for us not on July Fourth, but on a hill outside Jerusalem called Calvary. It is THAT freedom won for us by Jesus Christ that we gather to celebrate each time we gather for Holy Mass!

On this weekend of national celebration and Independence, let us thank God Almighty for our nation and our people! Let us, above all, give thanks for our Catholic Faith and the rich treasure that is ours to live and share! May we truly be grateful! I like the saying: "God Bless America; America, Bless God!" Very, very true.

We are very much aware that this is the last weekend Ricardo, Julie, and family, will be with us here at St. Mary. We are going to miss them so much! Ricardo and I have worked well together and as I mentioned when he made the announcement of his departure for Utah State University, we are not going backward; we are going to continue building on the tremendous talents he has shared and insure beautiful music at Masses and the rich heritage of our Catholic music. We wish Ricardo the very best in the future and he knows we will keep them all in our prayers and remembrance. Ad Multos Annos, Ricardo! Many years of success and happiness!

Again, A HAPPY AND JOYOUS FOURTH OF JULY TO ONE AND ALL! Have a happy and safe weekend!
