"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The Church offers us wonderful Scripture for this weekend's Mass. The first reading reminds us all that the command of the Lord, the truth of His message and way of life, is not something remote and far away. It is very near to us, already within our minds and hearts. Some would say all we need do is to carry it out. But we all know that it is never that easy.

We are so very familiar with the story of the Good Samaritan. Here is a person who fulfilled the command of the Lord even though he had never been formed in the fullness of Jewish tradition and faith. Those who first listened to this parable of Jesus, couldn't even bring themselves to utter the name Samaritan. They despised one another as a people. Imagine the young man's inner struggle when Jesus told him to "Go and do likewise." In other words, "Go, imitate your enemy's charity and kindness." His story brings us an important facet of our own lives that we sometimes fail to acknowledge, let alone appreciate. In our society today my friends, we need know and heed it's Divine Wisdom even more so.

It's called NATURAL LAW. Natural Law is that innate sense of right and wrong we have within us as human beings created in the image and likeness of God. Through practical reason and the dictates of a correctly formed conscience, all persons are able to know objective, moral law. While many it seems wish to deny its existence, we can no more set it aside than we can stop breathing. To some, they may experience this divine truth as restrictive, confining and limiting. To Catholics, it is the complete opposite ... it is freeing! It's that freedom of Jesus Christ and His Church.

Let us allow the Liturgy of the Word to settle into our hearts and inspire us to reach within and allow the truth of Christ, already planted deep within us through the Sacrament of Baptism, nourished by the Sacrament of the Eucharist and strengthened by the Sacrament of Penance, to grow and flourish into actions and attitudes that bring peace to our hearts and to our lives!

I would like to congratulate all the various chairs of our different ministries, for the excellent Ministry Fair we conducted back a couple of weeks ago. The results from more and more of you volunteering for your parish was phenomenal! Danke, bitte, to all who made the weekend a great success!

God Bless You All!

Father Michael Sutedjo
