"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

For several weeks now we have been listening to Gospel stories that focus on our behavior and relationships as we follow Christ Jesus. This week, the first reading and Gospel remind us that Christian hospitality has always been a hallmark of the Church. In a nutshell, we are both Mary and Martha. What we do is certainly important: like Martha. However, who we are, like Mary, is even more important! Who we are in the sight of God and our actions in light of our Catholic identity define us.

We are called to extend a welcome to those who come into our midst. Like the message from last weekend's parable of the Good Samaritan, this call to hospitality has challenging implications for us all. In welcoming the stranger or visitor, we not only imitate Jesus, we also have the potential of welcoming Christ Himself into our midst.

At times, hospitality is thought of as merely smiling at someone or saying "hello." While this can often be true, it goes much deeper for those of us who call ourselves Catholic. How so?

As a priest, I can't tell you the number of times people have shared with me that one big reason they converted to the Church was because they were invited to Mass or invited to pray about the Faith by a member of the parish or Catholic friend. That is the truest form of hospitality that we can offer! What could compare with welcoming someone into the Church established by Our Lord Jesus? Being there for someone who is inquiring about the Church, about the Holy Eucharist, about those "things" we Catholics "do;" that's being hospitable! Also, many, many folks have told me that when they first came to St. Mary, that they were so welcomed by people. It is partially why they chose to join our wonderful parish! This is the "new evangelization" that the late St. Pope John Paul II and Pope Francis urge us to live. When you stop to think about it, how do I approach God? Do I approach Him with my "to do" list, or with a spirit of humility and gratitude? May the Lord give us the will and joy to do so!

God's blessings upon us all!

Father Michael Sutich

Love Them Both Rally

NOW is the time to stand up for LIFE. For all the lives that are touched by abortion. It effects every-one. As a Catholic you have an obligation to help change a bad decision into a good one. You can help by registering for the Love Them Both Rally on July 26th! If you can't make it, you can contact your legislators and let them know how you feel. We ask that you help us spread the word to friends, family, and neighbors who also share our conviction on the sanctity of life.

With Indiana potentially being one of the few state legislatures voting on pro-life legislation that week, we anticipate an onslaught of outside, national interests bringing tremendous pressure down on our elected leaders. That's why this Rally is so important.

Please use the above flyer or share the <https://www.lovethebothrally.com/> link with your network right now.

Thank you for being a part of this moment in Indiana history, and we look forward to seeing you at the Statehouse on July 26th!

Respond back if you would like to carpool from the church.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
