"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"This Man welcomes sinners and eats with them." This complaint, voiced by the Pharisees and scribes in today's Gospel against Jesus, describes the behavior of the Lord Jesus throughout St. Luke's entire Gospel.

That behavior is no less true right here and right now in our own day. Whether we like to admit it or not, as Pope Francis has said about himself, each of us is a sinner. Each week the Lord Jesus gathers us around the altar of the Eucharist to celebrate a Feast of reconciliation. Here we know the love and forgiveness of God. Here, as at the tables at which Jesus ate with sinners, we know the fullness of His grace and mercy.

I doubt that most of us would care to own up to saying it but, while we ourselves ask the Lord for pardon and mercy, we have difficulty at times in extending this request for others. I suppose it's part of the original sin of pride which makes us more interested in our own forgiveness rather than that of another soul. And, by extension, we often times fail to offer this forgiveness to another on our own behalf; we like to hold grudges, resentment, and disrespect as if this somehow proves our superiority over another. In truth, it shows forth our own spiritual immaturity and sin.

Our Lord desires this forgiveness for us all. He gave us His Church and instituted the Sacrament of Penance for just this purpose. How sad when we fail to understand this and not avail ourselves of His Divine Mercy! As we depart today from Mass, let us try to remember the message Jesus shares with us ... and extend that message to one another!

As we gather for Mass this weekend, remember the tragedy of September 11, 2001. That event of terrorism and hate will remain in the heart of our nation. For everyone who was old enough at the time to realize what was transpiring, they will not forget that awful day. When you look back at news coverage that day, it remains surreal, impossible to imagine that it indeed did happen. For all who lost their lives that day, may they rest in peace.

God bless you all! To Jesus Through Mary!

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Knights in praying the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet daily. You can join us on Facebook as well as the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page. Council members also lead the Rosary prior to Saturday evening Mass and all Sunday Masses.

A fish fry will be held on Friday, October 14, 2022 and Friday, October 21, 2022, as a fundraiser with the Youth Group. It will be a drive thru as before. This will be during the Bridge Festival. The Council hopes all will support us on these endeavors.

The Knights are sponsoring a spaghetti dinner in November.

If anyone is interested in joining the Council or has questions regarding the Knights of Columbus or our activities, feel free to contact Mark Richardt at 317-354-5603 or by email rowdy251@yahoo.com.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
