29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

There are many times in our personal lives when we become weary. The arms of Moses grow weary in today's first reading. As long as he kept his arms raised high, the Israelites had the better of the fight, but when his arms were lowered, the Israelites would fall low in battle.

Aaron and Hur assist Moses by keeping his arms held high when he grows weary. Their persistence pays off as the Israelites win the decisive battle. Persistence is also the main point in today's Gospel. You know, the actions of Aaron and Hur are a beautiful example for us to follow. When our "arms grow weary," we have friends and family to support us. And we do the same for others.

As Catholics we are blessed to express our faith in the company of a nurturing community both locally as well as universally. Sometimes our prayer needs the support and compassion of those who will lift us up. At these times it is important for us to hold one another up so that our persistent prayers are constantly offered to our Lord! As we go forth from Mass today, let us pray in a spirit of thanksgiving for the gift of one another in the unity of faith and belief grounded in the Holy Eucharist!

This weekend, the ALL SOULS' DAY ENVELOPES ARE AVAILABLE IN THE VESTIBULE! Please return your ALL SOULS' ENVELOPES via the collection basket over the next two weekends. Place the names of your beloved dead on the envelope in order that the names can be inscribed into our BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE for this year's month of All Souls. Masses for ALL SAINTS' DAY, a Holy Day of Obligation will be offered on All Hallows' Eve 5:00 pm and on November 1st at 12:00pm.

Growing up, I always looked forward to the month of November. True, going to a Catholic School, we always had November 1st as a free day, so we didn't have to go to school the day after Halloween! And, yes, I never went to school on my birthday because of Veterans' Day! But the month was and still remains very special to me for another important reason. I always felt close to my family and loved ones who had died. As a Catholic, I always appreciated and loved the prayers offered for deceased aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents, etc. As I lost my two grandmas and now of course, Mom and Dad, November continues to hold a powerful hold. There's something about the COMMUNION OF THE SAINTS that I find very comforting. As the circle of family grows closer here on earth, it grows ever wider in heaven.

As we remember and pray for those gone in death, they pray for us! I find that very comforting. I feel sorry for those outside the Church who have jettisoned the belief in the saints and their intercession in our lives. Whether we are cleansed and purged of our sins in this life, or in purgatory, we all need the prayers of others! Plan on coming to Mass on All Saints Day!

PS. When you attend Mass for the Holy Day of Obligation of All Saints either at the Vigil Mass on October 31st at 5:00pm or the 12:00 Mass on November 1st, be prepared for something different. I will be celebrating the Mass in the ancient and approved posture known as "Ad Orientem/Ad Deum." It is particularly fitting, given the reading from the Book of Revelation used for All Saints' Day.

On behalf of the parish, I would like to very much thank ALL the men from the parish who helped install the new ceiling tiles in the lower level of the kirche. It sure does make a vast improvement! I am not sure, but the old ceiling tiles could very well have been the original, thirty plus year old ones. The guys do not wish to be named so let it suffice that we have awesome volunteers here at St. Mary's!

God Bless You All!

Father Michael Lutz
