"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's reading from the Book of Wisdom makes a fitting prayer to offer before we come to Mass. It provides a backdrop to the Gospel. In the familiar story of Zaccheus, we learn many things. The last line of the passage sums up a main point in all of St. Luke's Gospel: "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Looking into our hearts, I think it's safe to say that each one of us feels lost at some point or another in life. Jesus catches sight of Zaccheus in the tree. He stops His journey and seeks out the short of stature Zaccheus. Every one of us is "small" spiritually. Our sins keep us that way. Let us pray today that in moments when we feel "small" or insignificant, the good God will catch sight of us and change everything!

We are day early but... Happy All Hallows' Eve! All Hallows, All Saints and All Souls, form a liturgical "triduum" of prayer. On Monday and Tuesday, October 31st and November 1st, the Church celebrates the SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS. The Church calls all the baptized to come together in celebration of the promise of eternal life for those who put their faith in Jesus Christ! The promise has been fulfilled in the heroic lives of all the saints who have gone before us in faith. All Saints' Day is a reminder to us to "stay the course," to live lives in faithful witness to the great gift and treasure received in Baptism. The saints stand as models of charity, courage, and faith. Mass will be offered at 5:00 pm on October 31st. On November 1st, Mass will be offered at Noon.

On Wednesday, November 2nd, the Church celebrates the Feast of ALL SOULS. It is the special day set aside to gather for Mass in prayer for all those who have died. In a particular way, we pray for those who await the fullness of the Beatific Vision. Those in Purgatory need our prayers as we need theirs. Through the COMMUNION OF THE SAINTS, we ask those on earth to pray for us; we ask the saints to intercede on our behalf; we in turn pray for our beloved dead.

Come to Mass on All Souls' Day at 8:30 am! Remember your beloved dead. Pray for them. They pray for us!

May all the Angels and Saints pray for us all!

Father Michael Litzard
