"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

You know, there are many responses to the reception of a gift. Remember back to Christmas Days in the past when you opened something, and it just wasn't what you really wanted? Sort of hard sometimes to hide disappointment, isn't it? Or, when you've gifted someone else, and you can just tell that they don't particularly like your choice of gift?

Some people like to flaunt their fortune. Others become self-absorbed. Today's readings invite us to respond to God's gifts in a simple way. We are called to offer thanks. Each time we gather for the offering of Holy Mass; for the offering of the Eucharist, a word that means "thanksgiving," we have the opportunity of a lifetime to say "thank-you" to the Father.

Like Naaman and the grateful leper, we come before the Lord to give thanks for our families and friends, for our Catholic Faith, for the many blessings we have each received and most of all, for the Gift of Jesus Himself in the Most Holy Eucharist!

I think quite often, we can learn much from the grateful leper. This one grateful leper returned and perceived that with Jesus, something more and something better is offered than simply returning to our old way of life.

We all know, at times it's hard to be anything but thankful when we dwell on the problems, sufferings, and real pain that confront us in life. This life is not heaven, no matter how much we wish it were. As the hymn says: "We walk by faith." And because of faith, we are called to thanksgiving.

The Mass this weekend affords us the time to reflect upon blessings and thanksgiving. Are we a people who walk through life with grateful hearts? In what ways in the coming week can we offer thanks to God our Father for all we have been given? How can we share this with others?

It is somewhat hard to believe, but it's that time of year again when we will make available to the parish, the envelopes for ALL SOULS' DAY. The envelopes will be in the vestibule the weekends of October 22nd and 29th for you to include the names of your beloved dead which will be written into our BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE which will remain in the sanctuary during the holy month of November when we traditionally make a special effort to remember and pray for the dead. It is asked that all envelopes be returned no later than Monday, October 30th to be inscribed into the book.

Remember, Fish Frys this coming Friday, October 14th and again October 21st ... 4 to 7 p.m.

God's blessings to you all!

Father Michael Lutack
