"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

If you are like me, God love you(!), it is always hard for me to believe that Advent Season has come again. Where does the time go?! And yet, the Year of Grace 2023 has begun. As the first words of Advent, Christ Jesus tells us, "Be vigilant at all times."

As Catholics, our stance of vigilance is one of love, albeit imperfectly. When we love one another, the Lord Jesus is made present in our relationships, at work, at school, and most of all in our hearts and souls. This is the call of our Advent Season.

What ways will this first week of Advent be a time when you will take the stand of being "vigilant": how will you expand your love for your spouse, children, family, friends, coworkers, and fellow parishioners?

You know, Advent comes from the Latin word, ad-ventus, meaning "coming." And so, in a way, what the Church is encouraging us all to do is open our hearts and souls to the myriad of ways Jesus comes into our life each day. For us, the most grace-filled manner in which our Lord comes is of course in the Holy Eucharist. To actually receive God; imagine that! But that is exactly what we do when receiving Holy Communion. To encounter Him through the healing words of absolution in the Sacrament of Penance is awesome! Our first "The Light is On For You" Wednesday Confessions begin this coming Wednesday, November 30th from 6 to 7 pm! To come and spend just a short time with Him in the Blessed Sacrament is inspiring! Whatever it is you choose to do this Advent, do it with an openness of heart and spirit. I know it's hard to do. What with everything telling us to buy this, buy that, go here, go there, entertain everyone and their brother, it can be overwhelming. But the Lord compassionately encourages us to make the effort ... He will do the rest ... thank God!

Not too early to remind ourselves of the upcoming Holy Day of Obligation of the Immaculate Conception on December 7-8! VIGIL MASS ON DECEMBER 7TH AT 7: 00 PM; NOON MASS ON DECEMBER 8TH! What a great way to continue this holy season of Advent!

God bless you all! Our holy days and time of waiting and expectation have begun. Let us continue to pray for one another!
