~The Liturgy Committee

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Notwithstanding the Sadducees' verbal trickery, the issue raised in today's Gospel passage is very important: What will heaven be like? You've wondered, haven't you? If in our Father's Kingdom we "neither marry nor are given in marriage," will spouses who loved each other in this life experience a complete loss of that love and relationship? No. Think of our Lord's words, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

This truly suggests that in heaven we shall find no need. The woes and loves of this world will be completely filled by the Beatific Vision of the Holy Trinity. The fullness of God's love includes our beloved in this life. All the good in our hearts in this life will be retained; only more fully.

Our goal this year for the UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL IS $38,677.00. NEXT WEEKEND is Intention Weekend when we turn in our pledges of Time & Talent toward our parish as well as our pledge to the UCA. Let us generously support the work of the Archdiocese and our parish!! Blank cards are also available if you failed to bring your card from home.

The first paragraph of today's second reading is a prayer of encouragement fitting for our own spiritual journey of faith. The other readings focus our attention on the life that awaits us on the other side of the grave.

During this special month of November when we remember our beloved dead in a heightened manner, it is so appropriate to recall that what we do in this life is done in preparation for the life to come. This can become a little overwhelming at times, can't it? All of us at times harbor a natural fear of death, while at the same time, giving very little thought to eternal life.

This coming Friday, November 11th, we as a nation observe VETERANS' DAY. Originally called Armistice Day, it marked the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month back in 1918 when WW I officially came to an end. In 1954 (great year by the way!), the name changed to Veterans' Day to honor our men of women of every conflict and war in our nation's history; most especially those who "gave the last full measure of devotion." I remember sharing with you, that words can't really describe how it was when I got to visit the Normandy beaches and the Normandy American Cemetery in France. I brought some sand home from Omaha Beach, the bloodiest that day. Row after row of crosses, perfectly lined up, overlooking the beach. They play taps at 4 p.m. and lower the flag and there wasn't a dry eye among folks. On Friday, thank a vet! They do what most of us never have to do; defend our freedoms with their very lives.

May we remember and pray for All Poor Souls in this holy time of November! God bless always!

Father Michael Litzsch
