"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Do you seek light in your life, healing for your wounds, answers to your prayers? Who doesn't, right?

Isaiah tells us in the first reading today, that we shall receive all this and much more, if, and that's a big "if," we do the will of God. Sounds simple enough, doesn't it?

Isaiah spells out for us just how to do His will: share our bread with others, cloth the naked, remove false accusations and malicious speech. Each of us can do these things; it doesn't take a nuclear physicist to figure out what he's telling us to do.

St. Paul tells us these things are possible only through the cross of Jesus Christ. In other words, it is the truth of Christ that emboldens each of us to live as He calls us to live.

We make things so hard for ourselves most of the time. How so? Jesus has given us all truth, all life. These are given to us in our day through His Bride, the Church. Why do we not embrace His truth, His life? We would rather stand and knock our heads against the wall, so to speak, rather than humble ourselves and admit that Christ and His Church know best; not me.

Christ is the Light of the world! When He calls us that in the Gospel, He isn't saying that "it's all about you." We are not the Light that saves men's souls ... He is! He is telling us that we must share His light with others; bring others to Him. That is our call; that is our privilege!

We live in a day and time when everyone thinks that he or she knows best; "I'll follow my conscience," if they even think in those terms. However, one's conscience must be "formed" by the teaching of Jesus Christ and yes, His Church, in order to be formed correctly. It is not formed by various societal ideologies. As I heard a priest say one time: "...we can do things one of two ways. Either we humbly follow the way of Christ, or we do not. One way is "easy," one is not. Pretty sage advice really.

I realize it is a bit early but a reminder that ASH WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22ND, is quickly approaching! Our Mass schedule will be at NOON and again at 7:00 p.m. that day. Each Friday of Lent, we will offer the Stations of the Cross at 6:00 p.m. Naturally, the Fish Fries will be on the docket as well! On a cheery note ... when all of these events occur, realize February is more than half over!

God's blessings upon you all!

Father Michael Lutz

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world

seeking the ruin of souls.
