"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

I am writing this on Monday. Was up until 2 a.m.; can't sleep. Temp down from 103 to 100. I want to give you all an update concerning next week. I was due to go to St. Patrick's Retreat Cabin in Corning, IN (near Loogootee), from Sunday afternoon until Thursday evening. Now, of course, that is up in the air. IF better and have Mass this coming weekend, I may still go. That's why the bulletin says "no Mass" each day next week until Friday. However, I do not want to push too fast, too soon. This bout has been worse than the first one. IF I am here and do not go, there will be Mass. Be sure to read any emails that come from Anna!

In today's Gospel, our Lord instills His divine light deeper into our hearts. He surprised the people, who normally judged others according to their outward actions, by telling them that they would ultimately be judged on a deeper level: the attitudes of their minds and hearts; according to Him and not this world's values.

The Lord goes on to explain that we may appear calm on the outside, all the while harboring sin and darkness in our hearts. God, however, sees everything in our hearts and sends the light of Christ to shine on this inner self, our soul. There, in the shimmering light of truth that is Jesus Christ, we can no longer deny who and what we are; perhaps who and what we have become by our sins.

The Father alone can replace sin with humility and compassion. As a result, we are able to grow in the love that is the Holy Trinity!

Spring is on the way! February 22nd is ASH WEDNESDAY! For me, for some reason, the coming of Lent (which does come from a word meaning 'spring'), always signals not only the penitential season but the coming end of winter. Glory to Gott! This winter, in the area of snow, has not been that bad, but we are ready! Masses for ASH WEDNESDAY WILL BE AT NOON AND 7:00 P.M. Each Friday of Lent, Stations will be prayed at 6:00 p.m. and of course the Fish Fries will take place each Friday as well. Get ready, here it comes!

Laudetur Jesus Christus! Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Michael Suted

"Prayer makes your heart bigger, until it is capable of containing the gift of God Himself."
